SAUDI EXTENDS CUT OF 1 MN OIL BARRELS A DAY THROUGH SEPT

Saudi Arabia on Thursday said it will extend its unilateral production cut of 1 million barrels of oil a day through the end of September in its effort to boost flagging energy prices. The Saudi cut of 1 million barrels per day, which began in July, comes as the other OPEC+ producers have agreed to extend earlier production cuts through next year. The kingdom announced the extension in a statement on the state-run Saudi Press Agency.

CENTRE CURBS IMPORT OF LAPTOPS, TABLETS FOR SECURITY REASONS

The new restrictions, implemented with immediate effect, are also intended to boost domestic manufacturing, officials said

IMPORTERS WILL NEED SPECIAL LICENCE

The restrictions also cover microcomputers, large or mainframe computers, and certain data processing machines. Importers of these items would need government permission and licence for their inbound shipment. Government sources said the primary aim is to ensure the security of citizens as some of the listed hardware could compromise sensitive and personal data

REDUCING DEPENDENCE ON CHINA

- A large chunk of the electronic items and machinery imports are from China and South Korea. The curbs are also meant to encourage domestic manufacturing and reduce dependence on foreign goods
- No bar on the import of one unit of any of the restricted items, including those purchased from e-commerce portals through posts or courier

Petrol bomb attack on mosques in Nuh district of Haryana

HARPREET BAJWA @Chandigarh

A shop that was torched during Monday's riots in Gurugram | PTI

MOTORCYCLE-BORNE assailants hurled Molotov cocktails at two mosques in the riot-torn Nuh district of Haryana late on Wednesday night despite heightened security, indicating the situation there is still volatile.

Communal riots broke out in Nuh and Gurugram on Monday when a VHP yatra was attacked. To tamp down the communal heat, Muslims in Nuh and Gurugram have been advised by ulemas not to offer their Friday namaz at any public place or mosque. The initiative to seek the cooperation of the ulemas came from Deputy Commissioner Prashant Panwar and Superintendent of Police Varun Singla.

Sources said one of the mosques attacked on Wednesday night is near a police station. Both mosques suffered some damage. However, no one was injured in attacks that took place around 11.30 pm. A senior police officer said they are trying to identify the assailants through CCTV cameras in the vicinity.

Singla said, "Light arson has been done in one mosque while a short circuit seems to be the reason for the fire in the other. The police are conducting raids to nab the suspects."

So far, 93 FIRs have been registered — 46 in Nuh, 23 in Gurugram, three in Faridabad, three in Rewari, and 18 in Palwal — and 176 people arrested. "Provocative or false information should not be spread on social media. Those found responsible for the clashes will not be spared," Additional Chief Secretary T V S N Prasad said. A mob had stormed a cyber crime police station in Nuh on Monday during the riots. "It could be a major attack on the security of the country. It will be thoroughly investigated," Prasad added.

The curfew imposed in Nuh was relaxed for three hours during the day. Prohibitory orders have been clamped in Palwal as well.

Oppn offers middle ground on Manipur discussion in RS

Proposes debate under Rule 167, which the govt is okay with; may happen on August 11

PREETHA NAIR @ New Delhi

THE stalemate in the Rajya Sabha over the Manipur situation is likely to end as the Opposition on Thursday offered a "middle ground" to initiate a discussion on the matter at a meeting with the government's floor leaders.

In a climbdown from its demand for a discussion only under Rule 267, the Opposition proposed the discussion under Rule 167, which involves a motion. According to experts, under Rule 167, a motion can be moved and a discussion held.

Speaking to this newspaper, a senior Opposition leader who attended the meeting said that the parties have suggested debate under Rule 167 and the government appears to be in agreement with the idea.

"Both the sides were open for suggestions to end the impasse. A debate was held in 2002 under Rule 167 on the Gujarat riots," said the leader adding they will finalise their decision on Friday. Once the decision on Rule 167 is taken, the ball will be in the government's court to decide on the dates for the discussion.

While the Opposition hopes the discussion would begin from Monday, sources told this newspaper that the government may allow it only on August 11, the concluding day of the session.

While Union ministers Piyush Goyal and Pralhad Joshi represented the government, several Opposition leaders, including Leader of the Opposition Mallikarjun Kharge, Jairam Ramesh, Derek O'Brien, Elamaram Kareem and Binoy Viswam attended the meeting. Opposition leaders also are of the opinion that the parties should show some flexibility as crucial bills are getting passed without debate.

Taking to Twitter, Jairam Ramesh said, "INDIA parties have offered a middle path solution to the Leader of the House to break the logjam and get a discussion on Manipur going in an uninterrupted manner in the Rajya Sabha. Hope the Modi government agrees."

OVER 15 INJURED IN FRESH VIOLENCE

In Manipur, over 15 people were injured in two separate incidents of fresh violence. In Bishnupur, security forces had to use force to quell a mob of protesters. In the other incident, two persons, including a jawan, were injured during a gunfight between two groups on the border of Imphal West and Kangpokpi districts

UNIVERSITY'S NOTIFICATION RAPPED

The Kuki Students' Organisation criticised the Manipur University for issuing a notification on fresh admission in various PG programmes and integrated courses. They urged them to first address the issue of 400 displaced students, including 80 research scholars, who now cannot come to the Imphal valley

STRINGENT PROVISIONS

Data Protection Bill tabled in LS

RAKESH KUMAR @ New Delhi

UNION telecom minister Ashwini Vaishnaw on Thursday tabled the Digital Personal Data Protection bill in the Lok Sabha, amid protests from Opposition parties demanding it be sent to a parliamentary committee.

The bill proposes to regulate the usage of personal data of citizens by private companies as well as government agencies, and is the first legislation related to privacy. It says personal data can be only processed by data fiduciaries (entities that collect and process personal data), companies or government agencies lawfully with the consent of the individual concerned.

However, state agencies will be exempt if they use data for national security purpose or emergencies like epidemic.

In case of data breach, the entities will have to cough up ₹250 crore in each instance. The bill mandates data fiduciaries to inform users mentioning in clear language why their data is collected and what is its usage. Users can withdraw their consent any time.

"The bill will protect the rights of all citizens, allow innovation economy to expand and permit government's lawful and legitimate access in national security and emergencies like pandemics and earthquakes," said Rajeev Chandrasekhar, minister of state for electronics and information technology. The bill will be tabled in Rajya Sabha next week.

S.I.T TO AUDIT PROJECT WORKS LIKELY

The government is reportedly mulling formation of an SIT to conduct an external audit of bills related to development projects in Bengaluru, especially those by the BBMP between 2019 and 2022, according to a note issued by the office of DyCM DK Shivakumar. Meanwhile, D Kempanna, president of Karnataka Contractors' Association, termed this move unfortunate.

Centre has asked for DPR to ease traffic congestion in B'luru: DKS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

DEPUTY Chief Minister DK Shivakumar on Thursday said the Centre has asked the state government to prepare a detailed project report (DPR) to ease traffic congestion in Bengaluru.

Shivakumar, who met Union Road Transport and Highways Minister Nitin Gadkari in New Delhi, said that he responded positively to a request by the state government for support to ease traffic congestion in Bengaluru as vehicles from national highways also enter the city. "Gadkari gave some suggestions to ease congestion and asked us to prepare a detailed project report. We have called for global Expression of Interest (EoI) for construction of tunnels or flyovers or other ways to ease traffic congestion. Once we get proposals, we will hold discussions with the Centre which is ready to support us," he said. The EoI was invited through BDA and BBMP on July 14 and August 8 is the last date for submitting proposals. "We have also invited global tenders so that traffic consultants can study future projections and mass rapid transport systems. We have asked for a detailed project report. Two parties have shown interest and we want more players to participate in it," he said.

Shivakumar said New Delhi and Mumbai also face the problem of traffic congestion, but people don't talk about it. Only the problem in Bengaluru, an international city, gets highlighted. "We are preparing plans to ease congestion in the city and around 10 companies, including from Israel, Singapore and China, have made presentations. We have asked them to participate in the EoI," he said.

RACIST SLUR

Kalaburagi police file FIR against Araga

RAMAKRISHNA BADSESHI
@ Kalaburagi

KALABURAGI police on Thursday registered an FIR against former home minister and senior BJP leader Araga Jnanendra for his racist remarks against AICC president Mallikarjun Kharge.

The FIR was registered following a complaint by Rajiv Jane, a staunch follower of Kharge's son Priyank Kharge, who is RDPR Minister.

In his complaint, Jane stated that the racist remarks against Kharge have hurt his sentiments and appealed to the police to take action against the former home minister.

Jnanendra made the racist remarks at a meeting to protest against the Kasturirangan committee report at Thirthahalli in Shivamogga on Tuesday. Meanwhile, Priyank Kharge criticised Araga Jnanendra and tweeted that because of the influence of "Keshava Krupa", the former home minister made such racist remarks against the Congress president. Jnanendra's remarks show BJP's intolerance towards the oppressed classes. The skin of the people, who have been exploiting the working class in the name of "Varanashrama", will naturally be white. But the skin of the people, who have been working with self-respect, will be tanned because of the scorching sun, Priyank tweeted.

In big operation, Lokayukta raids 45 BBMP offices

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

CONSIDERING the complaints of corruption, favouritism, nepotism and maladministration seriously, the Lokayukta, Upa Lokayukta and judicial officers conducted simultaneous raids on 45 offices of revenue and town planning departments of BBMP across the city on Thursday.

During the raids, unaccounted cash, and irregularities and procedural lapses were detected in the Palike offices, according to sources.

In a first of its kind operation, Lokayukta Justice BS Patil and Upa Lokayukta Justice KN Phaneendra, who planned it, paid surprise visits to some offices.

Sources said BBMP offices in Bengaluru East, Bommanahalli, Yelahanka, Mahadevapura, Malleswaram, Rajajinagar, Banashankari, Vijayanagara, Basavanagudi, Rajarajeshwari Nagar, Yeshwanthpur and Dasarahalli were raided.

Thirteen judicial officers, seven superintendents of police, 19 deputy superintendents of police, 26 police inspectors and several policemen were part of the operation.

A'bad HC allows Gyanvapi survey

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

THE Allahabad High Court on Thursday upheld the Varanasi district court's July 21 order directing the Archaeological Survey of India (ASI) to conduct a scientific survey at the Gyanvapi premises to determine if the present-day mosque was built over a pre-existing temple.

"Issue of commission is permissible. The Varanasi court was justified in ordering an ASI survey of the premises. Scientific survey is necessary in the interest of justice," a bench of Chief Justice Pritinker Diwaker said in its order while dismissing the petition of the Anjuman Intezamia Masjid committee against the Varanasi district court's order.

Hours after the high court's order, the Masjid committee, which manages the affairs of the Gyanvapi mosque, moved the Supreme Court against the judgment. Advocate Nizam Pasha mentioned the matter before Chief Justice D Y Chandrachud seeking an urgent hearing.

The HC had reserved its verdict on July 27, stating that the Supreme Court's interim stay on ASI's survey shall stand extended till August 3. In Thursday's order, the HC said all interim orders stand vacated and the district court's July 21 order is fully restored.

Having got the HC's go-ahead, the ASI is set to begin the scientific survey from Friday.

4 B'luru cops on hunt for cyber fraud suspects detained in Kerala

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

FOUR policemen, including an inspector, attached to Whitefield CEN police station were detained for a while and released on Wednesday by Kerala Police following an extortion complaint against them from one of the accused in a cyber fraud case.

The policemen had gone to Kerala in connection with the cyber fraud case. While in Kerala, these policemen are alleged to have demanded Rs 3 lakh from one of the suspects to let him go. This suspect informed the matter to his advocate who then filed a complaint against the policemen.

Inspector Shivaprakash, head constables Vijay Kumar and Shivani, and constable Sandesh were detained by Kalamassery police of Kochi City Commissionerate. An extortion case has been registered against them. Whitefield CEN police had registered a cyber fraud case (crime number 747/2023) following a complaint from Chandaka Srikanth, a techie. The complainant stated that he lost Rs 26 lakh in an online job scam.

During investigation, it was found that Rs 10,000 was transferred to the bank account of a man identified as Issac from Madikeri in Kodagu. The police took him into custody and during interrogation, Issac revealed the names of three more suspects.

These suspects, in turn, revealed that Naushad from Malappuram in Kerala was also involved in the case.

The team of four policemen went to Kerala on July 31 in search of Naushad. He was picked up the next day at Vengara. Naushad revealed the names of two more accused Nikhil and Akhil from Ernakulam. The team informed the jurisdictional Palluruthy police of picking up Naushad, Nikhil and Akhil. On Wednesday, the Kalamassery police called the team members to appear before them for questioning following an extortion complaint against them filed by Akhil's advocate. The team members were released after issuing a notice. They were not arrested, S Girish, DCP (Whitefield Division), told reporters.

Govt mulls SIT to audit projects taken up in city

Contractors upset; Officials to clear bills only after thorough checks; Focus on BBMP works taken up from 2019-22

MOHAMMED YACOOB @Bengaluru

Before roads are constructed, it is to be confirmed whether new water and drainage pipes have been laid, and house connection work completed | EXPRESS

EVEN as contractors were left red-faced after Deputy Chief Minister DK Shivakumar directed officials to verify the projects and bills before releasing payment, the government is reportedly mulling the constitution of a Special Investigation Team (SIT) to do an external audit of works and bills related to development works in Bengaluru. They will specifically include those taken up by BBMP between 2019 to 2022.

According to a note issued by Shivakumar's office, officials have been instructed to clear the bills only after getting some clarity on road development works, waterways, lakes, building works and ward level works taken up under BBMP. Officials have also been asked to conduct site inspection, provide technical reports regarding requirements, attach photographs of the condition of the material, names of engineers, date when the tender was called and other details. In addition to commencement of work, a copy of road history, the name, designation and information of the certified officer should be provided.

Before roads are constructed, it is also to be confirmed whether new water and drainage pipes have been laid, and house connection work completed. When road work is taken up in areas with high traffic, the Indian Road Congress Code should be in force.

Many BBMP officials who are tasked to check and clear the Measurement Book (MB) for each work are also worried about the development as they feel the SIT would subject them to intense grilling. That has also caused resentment among the contractors.

D Kempanna, president, Karnataka Contractors' Association, termed the development "very unfortunate". "We will meet the DyCM on Friday and make an appeal to release the bills as many contractors are upset," said Kempanna, adding that he was aware the government was contemplating forming an SIT. "I was told the DyCM has proposed an SIT but I don't have more details on it," he said.

According to a senior engineer, seven IAS officers will be part of the SIT and will do an external audit of works and bills issued between 2019 and 2022, with regard to Bengaluru. Sources said the team is likely to include senior IAS officers Ujwal Kumar Ghosh, Munish Moudgil, PC Jaffar and others.

'Check works, then clear bills'

Deputy CM DK Shivakumar said he has instructed officials to check the authenticity of works before clearing bills. Kempanna had given a representation in the assembly, and BJP MLAs had given some suggestions. There were also reports from the Lokayukta, he said, justifying his instructions to cross-verify the projects before releasing money. Shivakumar also said they cannot delay bills pending for years. "We will check who gave work, who checked progress, who did the quality check. In some cases, just a day after tenders were called, works were awarded and in the next three days, work began and in a month's time, bills were also cleared. I need information on such cases and the public should also know," said Shivakumar.

WASTE WORRY STINKS AMID 10K IDEAS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

WITH the Clean Bengaluru campaign, under the aegis of 'Brand Bengaluru', receiving over 10,000 suggestions, pourakarmikas urged the BBMP solid waste management department to deploy more staff.

Basavaraj Kabade, chief engineer, SWM, BBMP, said Rs 6 crore penalties have been collected from violators who have been caught by BBMP marshals, health inspectors, and ward engineers. In some cases, they have also seized tractors dumping debris.

The BBMP, Department of Environmental Science, and Bangalore University had organised a discussion with citizens and stakeholders for suggestions. From user fees on garbage collection, implementing policies on construction and debris, and increasing pourakarmika strength were key suggestions among others.

Suggestions were sent on the portal and WhatsApp. During the meeting, members of NGOs, pourakarmika associations, contractors, and even BBMP officials took part. A road map will be drawn up based on the suggestions, Kabade said.

Kabade said that from 18,500, there are around 16,000 pourakarmikas now, including those in the direct payment category, but with the increasing population, more pourakarmikas are required.

BBMP garbage contractor Venkatesh CS said the processing plants must function without shutting down due to protests. "Of the seven processing plants, two or three have shut down due to residents' protests. Of 5,000 tonnes of waste, only 1,200 is being processed. The authorities should take residents into confidence and ensure the plants are functioning," he said.

Nandeesha JR, superintendent engineer, BBMP, SWM, RR Nagar Zone, said that the focus should be on construction and debris waste. He even suggested a model similar to cab aggregators. "We will have to prepare a document regarding this. It will allow us to track the vehicle and the Palike will have the details of the location where the waste is dumped," he said.

Shobha Bhat, member, residents welfare association, RR Nagar, suggested that the schools and religious institutions should ensure zero waste on the premises.

Document verification for PG Medical, Dental

The Karnataka Examination Authority will verify documents of candidates seeking admission to PG Medical and PG Dental courses, from August 4 to 11. Ramya S, Executive Director, KEA, said, "Candidates who have registered online, applied, paid the registration fee and qualified in PGNEET-2023, or NEET-MDS, 2023, are eligible to participate in the document verification process provided they have all the original documents." Document verification for PG Medical applicants will be held from August 4 to 9, and for PG Dental candidates on August 10 and 11. The timings are from 9 am to 6.15 pm, and admission-seekers should personally appear at the KEA, Bengaluru office. # A museum that takes 'farm to school'

Agriculture Minister N Cheluvarayaswamy looks at an exhibit at the new Agricultural Sciences Museum at the GKVK campus on Thursday | EXPRESS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

SEVERAL schools have already started inquiring and booking slots for the newly inaugurated Agricultural Sciences Museum on Thursday at the Gandhi Krishi Vigyana Kendra (GKVK) campus. The museum is one-of-a-kind in Karnataka, dedicated to agriculture. So far, officials have received over a dozen inquiries and an equal number of calls.

Built on a 923-acre plot of land, the museum, which has been in the making for 10 years, was finally inaugurated by Agriculture Minister and Pro-Chancellor, UAS, N Cheluvarayaswamy on Thursday. The museum will educate farmers, students and tourists through audio-visual models and exhibits. The six large exhibition halls showcase live models and dynamic technology that explain the evolution of agriculture in the country.

Speaking to TNIE, KP Raghu Prasad, Head of Agricultural Sciences Museum, said, "The museum is driven by different technology and shows the evolution of agriculture over the years. There are several scientists who will explain the concepts in detail to visitors." He added that information can be obtained through 'touchscreen tech' installed at various stalls.

To promote the 'International Year of Millets', an entire exhibition has been set up to understand millets types, their evolution and benefits, and a photo gallery to promote agricultural marketing. "We are extremely happy to see that school administrations want their students to learn about agriculture. Today, more than 300 students visited the campus and we are constantly getting queries," said Prasad. The exhibition rooms highlight various subjects, such as the workings of APMC markets and subsidiary occupations, such as animal husbandry, poultry and sericulture. Displays on forests, renewal energy and climate change are also present.

Entry to the museum is free, and it is open between 9 am and 4 pm on weekdays, and 9 am and 12.30 on Saturdays.

Need practices to counter dry days: Minister

ENS @Bengaluru

AGRICULTURE Minister N Cheluvarayaswamy on Thursday said that the state needs to adopt improved farming practices to counter the number of dry days in the year.

Speaking at the 57th Convocation of the University of Agricultural Sciences (UAS), Bengaluru, Cheluvarayaswamy said the impact of climate change has reduced the number of rainy days and increased the number of dry days in the state. "Climate change will adversely affect the amount and distribution of rainfall, and thereby, have an enormous impact on agriculture and related activities. The number of rainy days is expected to decrease. In such cases, it is imperative and necessary to adopt improved farming practices for sustainable agricultural production, including integrated farming and alternative land use systems," he said.

He also called on UAS to start conducting seed production skill training programmes for unemployed youth.

A total of 1,295 students were awarded degrees on Friday, of which 891 were undergraduate degrees, 299 postgraduate degrees, and 105 doctoral degrees. Of these, a total of 160 gold medals were awarded to students for excellence in academics, including 66 students who were awarded 54 UAS gold medals.

No relief for Yogeeshwara in Megacity fraud case

ENS @Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court upheld the order passed by the magistrate court to implead Megacity (Bangalore) Developers and Builders Limited as accused into the web of criminal cases, by allowing a application filed by the Serious Fraud Investigation Office (SFIO), Ministry of Corporate Affairs.

Justice M Nagaprasanna passed the order by dismissing petitions filed by CP Yogeeshwara, former MD of Megacity (Bangalore) Developers and Builders Ltd, and former MLA, questioning the order dated July 8, 2022, passed by the magistrate court on the application filed by SFIO pertaining to 'Vajragiri Township Project at Bidadi. "The court records that the complaint narrates several instances of allegations against the company which would become ingredients of Section 403 and 409 of the IPC and the company is necessary to be tried along with the directors/promoters of the company. Without the company, the Managing Director/Promoter/Director, who is accused No.1, cannot be prosecuted... There is enough material against the company for having allegedly misappropriated the amounts which came into the project...," the court said. In its complaint, SFIO alleged that promoters/directors of Megacity (Bangalore) Developers and Builders Ltd have misappropriated subscription money paid by the applicants and certain lands purchased by the company were from the funds generated from the project and were subsequently sold to Prestige Bidadi Holdings Private Ltd.

KIA REMAINS TOP HUB FOR EXPORT OF PERISHABLE CARGO

BENGALURU: For the third consecutive financial year, Kempegowda International Airport remains the leading air hub for export of perishable cargo in India. A record tonnage of 53,751 tonnes of perishables was witnessed in fiscal 2022-23, a 3% increase over the previous year. A release said Oman, Qatar, Singapore, the Maldives, the UAE, Kuwait, and the UK emerged as top destinations for export of perishables during the fiscal. "Bengaluru airport has maintained its dominant position in the export of perishable goods, with 27% share in total cargo volumes across the Indian air cargo market and 41% share within airports in Southern India," it said. Among perishable goods, KIA led in export of poultry and floriculture, while vegetables and fruits were among top commodities exported by Bengaluru Cargo.

04th August: Virgoan patterns say one thing: be practical. I know we all have our own personalities, pressures and priorities, but the general rule today is that it's good to go for concrete results. The more we have achieved by the end of the day, the happier we'll all be.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
Today's Moon relates to the very heart of your chart, converting what were once only dreams into reality. Rather than waiting for fate to take a hand, this is an excellent moment to set yourself on a new and positive course with maximum determination.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
Your dominant planetary patterns today are rather lively, yet there's a deep, meditative quality as well. You may wish to spend more time by yourself and could consider cancelling a social engagement. Yet you will also be reviving old plans or hearing from long-lost friends.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
It is not possible to say whether social or professional arrangements are more important today. However, such distinctions are irrelevant, for what does matter is that you throw yourself into team activities which are destined to attract personal prestige and status.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
This is the last time you should hide in the corner or shelter under your stone. Take a deep breath and propel yourself into the centre of the stage, hogging the spotlight and hopefully taking a large share of the glory. I have to say that this is nothing less than you deserve.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
Don't be surprised if the odd legal problem should occur, however trivial. It's all a question of knowing your rights and not being over-awed by authority. Also, begin to reconsider a dodgy financial question, and stay alert for news from overseas.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
The moment has come to present others with the bill for your services. Don't think purely in cash terms, though, for there may be emotional duties which people can perform. Do be careful not to muddy the waters for, if you create confusion now, it may get worse by next week.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
Today's Moon sets up a series of emotional challenges, so you might surmise that it will not go smoothly. Neither should it. It is at moments like these, you see, that you learn those important lessons about other people's true nature and decide who you really want to be with. A new dawn beckons!

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
If there is a virtue at the moment then it's consistency. You shouldn't falter at work, or in any task of a thoroughly routine nature. Take difficulties in your stride and use them to build up your confidence and experience. Plus, romantic stars continue to show signs of increasing passion.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
The scope for personal pleasure is greater than for some time, which should be good news. After taking circumstances into account, you should try to make all aspects of your life as personally fulfilling as possible. Whatever happens, keep your eye on the future.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
Life is looking a little complex. Don't try to keep the lid on at home, but allow a release of emotional pressure. Otherwise the head of steam that builds up will explode sooner or later, removing your choice and pushing events in a direction that may not suit you.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
Financial commitments could soon prove costly, but not just yet. The helpful news is that there is nothing that will now be done that cannot be undone at a later stage. You are therefore on to a winner! But don't be too complacent though, and keep your options open.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
You do seem to have let personal generosity dictate your financial situation, so if you are now asked to cough up you can hardly complain. In any case, you get a good feeling inside from giving your money away. If there's extra tension around then don't blame others, but do something about it!

RAJ BHAVAN on Thursday decided to withdraw the complaint filed against AirAsia India and two of its staff after the Karnataka Governor Thaawarchand Gehlot was not allowed to board his flight to Hyderabad on July 27, said sources. This follows a written apology submitted by AirAsia India Managing Director Aloke Singh on Wednesday.Air Asia India station manager Zico Swaris and ground handling staff Areefullah were derostered since July 29 and the airline ordered an internal inquiry into the incident that occurred before the flight took off from Terminal 2.

A source said, "The Governor has decided not to pursue the complaint registered with the police. He does not want anyone to suffer any loss of employment. A letter from Singh was personally delivered by a senior airline official to Raj Bhavan yesterday."

NIMHANS plans new 4-storeyed OPD

Move after hosp sees high footfall; Project could cost ₹280 cr; To come up behind existing facility

S LALITHA @ Bengaluru

IN a major relief for patients across India who queue up as early as 4 am to collect a token to avail treatment at NIMHANS, the country's premier mental health institute has plans to build a spacious, four-storeyed Outpatient Department (OPD) within its premises. It could cost up to Rs 280 crore.

Dr Pratima Murthy, Director at NIMHANS told The New Indian Express, "We have sent a proposal to the Centre for its approval and funding. From an average of 400 to 500 patients visiting us in the mid-1990s, the number has shot up six times now. With anywhere between 2,000 to 2,500 people visiting us per day as outpatients, we want to make our hospital comfortable for them."

People wait at the OPD in NIMHANS in Bengaluru on Thursday | NAGARAJA GADEKAL

The new OPD would be built behind the existing one. "The existing one would be eventually closed and the staff and medical equipment will be shifted to the new premises. We hope to convert the present one into a beautiful garden," she said.

Patients come from far-off towns and a comfortable wait would reduce their stress levels inside their premises, Dr Pratima added.

NIMHANS had already undertaken measures recently to improve the waiting period for patients. "For instance, we launched separate queues for the elderly, pregnant women and for those with children, which has helped them considerably," the senior Psychiatry professor said.

A survey conducted among patients on 'Namma Aaspathri' revealed that the waiting period and the insistence on only cash payment for a few services were few aspects the public were not happy with. "For 75% of our services we accept other modes of payment, but for others, we still take only cash," she said.

Study: Anti-depressants may reduce chance of relapse in bipolar patients

BENGALURU: Modern antidepressants may reduce the risk of depressive relapse for patients with bipolar depression, states a new international study led by Prof Janardhan Reddy, head of psychiatry, NIMHANS, and Prof Lakshmi Yatham of the University of British Columbia, which was published on Thursday. A large number of participants in this study are from India. The findings, published in the 'New England Journal of Medicine', challenge current clinical practice guidelines and could change how bipolar depression is managed globally. There is a concern that antidepressants used to treat unipolar depression and other forms of depression may not only be ineffective in treating depression of the bipolar type, but may worsen the course of illness by precipitating mania. Results from the world's first randomised clinical trial conducted at sites in Canada, India and Korea, involving 178 patients with bipolar disorder, demonstrate that extending adjunctive antidepressants up to 52 weeks may be beneficial in preventing relapse into depression, compared to discontinuation after 8 weeks of remission. "Stabilizing patients and preventing relapses, particularly depressive relapses, is critical and our study has demonstrated that modern antidepressants may play a potential role," said Dr Reddy.

Toll in water tank collapse rises to three, building owner booked

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THE death toll in the overhead tank collapse on Central Street near Shivajinagar bus stand rose to three with a 32-year-old man succumbing to his injuries at Victoria Hospital on Thursday morning. The deceased have been identified as Arul, 40, Kota Nageshwar Rao, 32, and Karan Thapa, 32.

The overhead tank along with the supporting wall fell from the fifth floor of a commercial building near Bowring Hospital at 10.45 pm on Wednesday. The overhead plastic tank that was full of water fell on the people who were on the pavement eating at a roadside eatery. Five persons sustained injuries. The police managed to identify Arul based on the Aadhaar card which was in his pocket. Of the three victims, Arul and Rao died on Wednesday night. Thapa succumbed to injuries on Thursday morning. Thapa was shifted from Bowring Hospital to Victoria Hospital. The injured are Daniel and Das, the owner of the eatery. The condition of two others is said to be out of danger.

"The water tank fell from the fifth floor. Proper support must not have been given to the tank. FSL experts and certified civil engineers opinion will be sought to ascertain the exact cause of the incident," Bheemashankar S Guled, DCP (East) told the media.

A case against the building owner has been registered for death by negligence under section 304A of the Indian Penal Code.

The Commercial Street police have registered a case and are further investigating.

MEDIA PERSONS MUST RESTRAIN FROM USING UNPARLIAMENTARY WORDS: HC

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

NOTING that it is high time courts bestow supervisory jurisdiction on print and electronic media when occasions demand, the Karnataka High Court said the persons handling print and electronic media must show utmost restraint in using unparliamentary or defamatory words while reporting news.

Justice V Srishananda made these observations while quashing a case pending against journalists of four vernacular daily newspapers and a media house in Gadag based on the private complaint filed by an advocate.

They have expressed remorse and tendered unconditional apology through affidavit, while also clarifying that reports in question were unintentional.

The journalists were booked for using unparliamentary words as used by an MLA during the legislative assembly session, about a resolution allegedly passed by the advocates' associations across the state to not defend any journalists. They were reporting remarks he had made about the unfortunate 2012 incident between journalists, lawyers and police officers in City Civil Court complex in Bengaluru.

The court said the news reports carried in print and electronic media must strictly adhere to the guidelines issued by the Press Council of India.

Using unparliamentary words is per se intolerable and beyond the scope of the guidelines. It is often said that the print and electronic media/journalists form the fourth pillar of democracy. If they claim so, they should work and act in that regard with utmost care and caution, said the court.

Couple, baby girls found dead in flat

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

A 31-year-old software professional from Andhra Pradesh along with his wife and two daughters were found dead under mysterious circumstances at their flat in Sai Garden Apartment in Seegehalli in Kadugodi.

The deceased are identified as Veerarjuna Vijay, his 29-year-old wife Hemavathi and daughters, Moksha Meghanayana, two-and-half-year-old, and Shrusti Sunayana, eight months old.

Police suspect the techie must have killed his wife and two daughters before taking the extreme step. They are awaiting the postmortem report to ascertain the exact cause of death.

They are also not ruling out the possibility of the couple taking the extreme step after killing their daughters. The reason behind the incident are being investigated.

The incident came to light on Thursday when neighbours complained to the police about a foul smell emanating from the victims flat. The police had to break open the door to gain entry. They suspect the incident must have happened on Monday.

"The couple got married six years ago. We are checking if there is any foul play behind the deaths. We are checking the apartment CCTV footage to find out if anybody had visited the victims on the day of the incident. The couple's mobile phones are also being checked. A team of FSL experts have visited the spot," said an investigating officer. The Kadugodi police have registered a case.

SUB PLAN FUNDS ALLOCATED FOR SC, ST GUARANTEES: GOVT

Says Rs 11,144 crore will be used for guarantee schemes of such communities

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

AFTER coming under fire from the Opposition over diversion of Scheduled Caste Sub Plan (SCSP) and Tribal Sub Plan (TSP) grants for implementation of the Congress guarantees, the government on Thursday clarified that Rs 11,144 crore under the SCSP and TSP grants has been allocated for the guarantee schemes. It will be mandatorily used for families from the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes.

The Chief Minister's Office (CMO) issued a detailed note refuting the allegations of diverting the SCSP/TSP funds and justified the decision to allocate Rs 11,144 crore for implementing the guarantees.

The guarantee schemes implemented by the Energy Department, Women and Child Welfare Department, Skill Development, Transport and Foods, and Civil Supplies Department directly benefit people from SCs and STs, the note said. As per the guidelines, part of the allocations under the SCSP and TSP have been given to those departments to implement the guarantee schemes, the government said.

In the SCSP and TSP grants of Rs 34,294 crore, Rs 5,075 crore has been allocated for the Gruha Lakshmi scheme, Rs 2,779.97 for Anna Bhagya, Rs 2,410 for Gruha Jyothi, Rs 812 crore for Shakti and Rs 67.5 crore for Yuva Nidhi scheme, the note stated.

"Directions have been given to ensure that the funds will be used only for beneficiaries from SC and ST communities. Appropriate measures have also been taken to get exact numbers of SC/ST beneficiaries and getting it examined by a nodal agency," the note stated.

The government has decided to do away with Section 7 (D) of the SCSP and TSP Act 2013, which gives scope for spending the grants for other purposes and the same has also been announced in the budget. With that, the grants will not be allowed to be diverted for roads, bridges, or other such works and it will only be used for providing direct benefit to people from those communities.

The CMO note cited a decline in central grants as the reason for the reduction in the SCSP and TSP funds as the state governments were forced to take loans, which eventually increases its burden. Despite that, this year, the government prepared the SCSP and TSP action plan for Rs 34,294 crore, which is Rs 4,031 crore more compared to the last year's action plan.

However, opposition parties have accused the government of diverting the funds for guarantee schemes when people from the community need better education and healthcare. They have accused the CM of being anti-Dalit.

AAP plans mega protest against govt over grants

BJP protest

Former chief minister Basavaraj Bommai and other BJP leaders will take part in a BJP SC Morcha protest at Freedom Park in Bengaluru on Friday against the diversion of the SCSP and TSP grants for implementation of guarantee schemes.

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

THE Aam Aadmi Party state unit will organise a massive protest on Saturday against the Siddaramaiah-led Congress government for diverting over Rs 11,000 crore reserved for the Scheduled Caste Sub Plan (SCSP) and the Tribal Sub Plan (TSP) to fund its guarantee schemes.

At a press conference here on Thursday, AAP SC & ST wing state president Purushottam alleged that the state government proved that it's anti-Dalit within two months of coming to power by diverting the grants reserved for the development and welfare of SC and ST communities.

"It is a grave injustice to Dalit and tribal communities that Rs 11,130 crore reserved for SCSP and TSP programmes is being utilised to fulfil the guarantee schemes. Even the previous BJP government had diverted the funds meant for the welfare of SC and ST communities towards other projects. Hence, people from the oppressed communities voted against BJP to bring Congress to power. Unfortunately, the communities are being cheated again by the current government," he said.

Party Vice-President Suresh Rathod said AAP will fight against the anti-Dalit policy of the state government by holding a massive protest at Freedom Park and various Dalit organisations have extended their support.

'Disqualify Araga Jnanendra'

Condemning BJP leader and former Home Minister Araga Jnanendra's alleged racist remark against AICC president Mallikarjun Kharge, AAP state president Mukyamantri Chandru demanded that the state government initiate steps to disqualify Jnanendra as MLA.

"The former home minister's remark is an insult to the entire Dalit community and people of North Karnataka, and such comments should not be tolerated," Chandru said.

Cops abused us in hostel, say students

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Hassan

THE SC/ST hostel at Vidyanagar in Hassan witnessed high drama late on Wednesday following the trespassing into the premises by several night beat police personnel.

The students staged a protest till 3 am on Thursday alleging that three inebriated police constables intruded into the hostel without taking permission from the hostel warden or senior officials. They also alleged that the constables abused one of the students asking about his caste.

"When arguing, one of the police constables also asked who Dr BR Ambedkar was when a student said that they were staying at Ambedkar hostel," a student said. One constable also snatched the cell phone of a student, who was video recording the incident, and smashed it.

Hassan Deputy Superintendent of Police Muralidhar visited the hospital at 2 am and pacified the students. All the three police constables reportedly tendered an apology for disrespecting Ambedkar. Based on his report, one of the constables has been suspended and two others have been issued notices.

Superintendent of Police Hariram Shankar claimed that the constables went to the hostel after receiving a call from there. He also clarified that the constables didn't consume alcohol and they underwent a medical examination immediately after the incident.

'Suspension of MLAs unpardonable'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

FORMER speaker of Karnataka Legislative Assembly Vishveshwar Hegde Kageri said the state legislature witnessed suspension of members only a few times and the recent suspension of 10 MLAs over a small issue is "unpardonable".

Taking part in a discussion on the suspension of MLAs organised by 'Citizens for Democracy' here on Thursday, Kageri said the action of the current Speaker and the state government making a big issue out of a small incident and suspending the MLAs is unpardonable. "The chief minister and parliamentary affairs minister played a big role in this and it is a classic example of misusing the House for politics," Kageri alleged.

He pointed out that the role of the ruling party is also important for smooth proceedings of the House and it is not appropriate to suspend MLAs for tearing papers, and such developments will affect the system. "The incident wouldn't have taken place if the House was adjourned for lunch. When Yogesh Bhat was the deputy speaker, members had thrown a paperweight at him. Were the members suspended then?" Kageri asked.

Former chairman of Legislative Council DH Shankaramurthy said suspending the MLAs for tearing papers is like giving capital punishment to a pickpocket. "The move of the parliamentary affairs minister is upsetting," he said.

Former MLA AT Ramaswamy took a jibe at I.N.D.I.A, the coalition of opposition parties, terming it 'Eat India Company'.

Kumaraswamy working to destabilise govt, confirms MLA

Bengaluru: Just a week after KPCC President DK Shivakumar raised the issue of JDS leader H D Kumaraswamy working from abroad to destabilise the government, five-term Magadi MLA HC Balakrishna also raised the issue, saying Kumaraswamy was indeed trying to do so. He told TNIE over phone that Balakrishna, who had joined the Congress from the JDS, had asked how they -- JDS and BJP -- would take away 30 legislators or more from the Congress to destabilise our government. He said that if they attempt it, will leaders like Siddaramaiah and others just keep watching? Balakrishna's statement echoed Shivakumar's apprehensions a few days ago about Kumaraswamy, who is holidaying in Iceland and adjoining areas, and was seeking to disturb the government. Congress sources claimed that they had information about Kumaraswamy meeting with two important leaders abroad. ENS

CONG GAMEPLAN

CM using coast's decline in health, edu to counter BJP in its turf

VINCENT D'SOUZA @ Mangaluru

BY raising the issue of Dakshina Kannada and Udupi districts' sharp fall in education (SSLC and PUC results) and health indexes during the previous BJP regime, Chief Minister Siddaramaiah has set a political narrative to counter the saffron party and Sangh Parivar in their backyard.

While the BJP sees politics behind the CM's statement to divert people's attention from the government's alleged inability to take up development works due to fund crunch owing to the implementation of its five guarantees, the Congress begs to differ saying that there is nothing wrong in it and he just voiced the concerns of educational, industrial and other bodies. During review meetings in Udupi and Mangaluru on his maiden visit to the region as CM, Siddaramaiah said in health index, Udupi and Dakshina Kannada, which were in first and third positions, respectively, in 2015 (Congress rule), slipped to the 18th and 23rd position now.

In the education index (SSLC results), he said Udupi and Dakshina Kannada fell to the 18th and 19th places from top positions in 2015. In comparison, the CM said a backward district like Chitradurga has shown significant progress in these two indexes. Pulling up officials for the coastal districts fall from glory, he warned them of strict action if they fail to show marked improvement in the coming years.

BJP MLA Y Bharat Shetty said they were expecting the CM to announce funds to tackle sea erosion, construction of IT Park and others. But the cash-strapped government made a big issue about health and education indexes to divert people's attention, he alleged.

Shetty maintained that Dakshina Kannada's average in Infant Mortality Rate (IMR) and Maternal Mortality Rate (MMR) is better compared to the state's average though there is a slight rise compared to the past. "There is nothing unusual in IMR and MMR of the district and it is in tandem with increase and decrease in the state," he maintained.

Another BJP leader attributed these districts fall in health and education indexes to the increased migration of labourers to the region over the years and maternity hospitals here getting patients in critical condition. "Many children of migrant labourers join school but do not even write the exams. Hospitals here get patients in critical condition from over a dozen neighbouring districts. All these factors have contributed to the issue," he said.

MG Hegde, a Congress leader, denied that the CM was playing politics over the issue, saying BJP MLAs themselves should have raised these issues. He said in a number of meetings organised by the Congress to form the party's election manifesto, industrialists, educationalist and others in the coastal region had raised serious concerns over the region's fall from glory in education and health and had blamed divisive politics for this. The CM was just trying to address them, he added.

Chief Minister Siddaramaiah presents a memento to Union Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman in New Delhi on Thursday

Siddu pays Modi courtesy call, avoids sticky issues

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru:

CHIEF Minister Siddaramaiah chose not to rake up issues related to Karnataka during his maiden visit to Prime Minister Narendra Modi at Parliament House, in the national capital on Thursday.

It was his first meeting with Modi after he became chief minister of the Congress government, and he restricted it to a courtesy call during which the duo exchanged pleasantries for about five minutes, according to sources. During his next visit, Siddaramaiah is likely to come up with a solid proposal to the Prime Minister, sources quoted him as saying, after he called on Modi.

Siddaramaiah honoured Modi with a Mysuru Peta, Karnataka's traditional headgear, a shawl and wooden memento of the Mysuru Dasara palanquin, in which an elephant carries a howdah.

It was believed that Siddaramaiah may take up the issue of the Centre's non-cooperation with state sponsored schemes, especially 'Anna Bhagya', as the ministry of consumer affairs had discontinued the supply of rice to the states. Siddaramaiah had replied strongly to Modi's statement that the Karnataka government's five guarantees would make the state bankrupt.

Meanwhile, during his meeting with Defence Minister Rajnath Singh, Siddaramaiah requested him to organise an air show on the occasion of Dasara in Mysuru in October. He also called upon Union Finance Minister Niramala Sitharaman and discussed the GST compensation related issues. During his next visit, he is likely to give a separate proposal from the state, a source said.

Incidentally, Siddaramaiah turned 76 on Thursday, and celebrated the occasion with his supporters in the national capital before wrapping up his two-day trip.

PRIVATE MEET WITH KHARGE

Chief Minister Siddaramaiah greets AICC chief Mallikarjun Kharge

Speculation is rife over nominations to the three vacant seats of MLCs, after Siddaramaiah called on AICC President Mallikarjun Kharge and held one-on-one talks. After taking part in two brainstorming sessions on Wednesday, the meeting of the two bigwigs gained significance. Sources said they may have discussed appointments to boards and corporations, reshuffle in the KPCC and dissent of certain MLAs against some ministers.

Water will be released from Tungabhadra: DKS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru:

WATER Resources Minister D K Shivakumar on Thursday said the Karnataka government has decided to release 5,575 cusecs of water from the Tungabhadra river to districts in North Karnataka.

Speaking to reporters in New Delhi, Shivakumar, also the Deputy Chief Minister, said Minister Shivaraj Thangadagi has been appointed chairman of the Tungabhadra Advisory Committee. There is a demand from farmers to release water and the government will release 5,575 cusecs, he said.

Shivakumar said he reviewed the status of inter-state water disputes with the legal team. All water disputes, including Cauvery, Krishna, Mahadayi, Mekedatu and Kalasa-Banduri projects, and reasons for delays have been discussed, he said. The status of pending projects related to the state Urban Development Department was also reviewed, he said.

'Central team will inspect highways'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru/Belagavi

UNION Minister for Road Transport and Highways Nitin Gadkari has assured Chief Minister Siddaramaiah and PWD Minister Satish Jarkiholi of sending a team of experts and officials to inspect highways crisscrossing the state to resolve issues.

Siddaramaiah and Jarkiholi met Gadkari in New Delhi and apprised him of the problems related to highways in the state, especially the Bengaluru-Mysuru restricted access highway. The CM requested Gadkari to provide entry and exit of bypasses and to facilitate roadside amenities on the highway. The leaders discussed preventive measures for accidents on highways and the construction of a tunnel at Shiradi Ghat.

Recently, Jarkiholi had met Gadkari in New Delhi in connection with the implementation of several PWD projects in the state, particularly the tunnel at Shiradi Ghat. Jarkiholi has expressed confidence that Gadkari would help the state overcome the problems related to the highways.

Besides, Gadkari was requested to enhance the sanctions of National Highway Original Works to Rs 10,000 crore under the Annual Plan 2023-24 and to release Rs 1,000 crore grants under Central Road Infrastructure Funds (CRIF) in the current financial year for the improvement of state roads and major district roads. Siddaramaiah requested the Union minister to enhance the grant under Maintenance & Repairs (M&R) to Rs 50 crore and release Rs 250 crore grants under Flood Damage Repairs (FDR).

The CM also discussed widening the NH-766 connecting Kerala and Karnataka to Kollegala via Gundlupet, Nanjangud and Mysuru, and widening NH-948 connecting Karnataka and Tamil Nadu to Kankapura via Malavalli and Kollegala, and requested approval of these projects by NHAI.

KMF says will be happy to be part of TTD laddu

Federation keen to take part in tender, writes to TTD, claims issue politicised

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE Karnataka Milk Federation (KMF) has written to the Tirumala Tirupati Devasthanams (TTD) expressing interest to supply Nandini ghee to make the laddus given as prasadam at the Tirupati Venkateswara temple.

In the letter, the KMF management has also clarified on the supply of ghee to TTD and said that the issue has now taken a political twist. The management in the letter, a copy of which is available with TNIE, reads, "A coverage in the media, regarding non supply of ghee to TTD from KMF has taken a political twist, giving scope for different statements from political parties. However KMF is in good relations with TTD."

KMF MD MK Jagadish told TNIE that he had written to TTD on August 2. Jagadish said he has also informed TTD that KMF is keen to supply them ghee as per their requirement at a price best suitable to both.

Jagadish said that they have told TTD that they are keen to participate in the tender process and start supplies at the earliest. Jagadish said that a request has also been made to the TTD to convene a meeting to arrive at a mutual understanding about price and supplies.

The letter adds KMF had never expressed that TTD was procuring low quality ghee. KMF has also stated that it would be delighted to be a part of TTD in the preparations of the laddus as it is an offering of their devotion to Lord Venkateshwara.

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Madikeri

A tourist trying to take a selfie standing on a bridge is suspected to have drowned in the Harangi waters in Kodagu district. Search operation was ongoing till late evening on Thursday to trace the man.

Sandeep, Govindaraju, Ramkumar and Ranjith were visiting Kodagu from Bengaluru. On Thursday evening, the four stopped on the Harangi Bridge to click photographs. Sandeep (46), a tattoo artist by profession, got down from the vehicle and tried clicking a selfie standing at the edge of the bridge. He slipped from the bridge and is suspected to have drowned. The fire department reached the spot immediately to conduct a search operation even as the water outflow from the reservoir was stopped.

"The outflow from the dam was low and the victim is suspected to have slipped from the bridge while trying to click a selfie. The raft teams from Dubare are involved in the search operation," confirmed Gangadharappa RV, the DySP of Somwarpet Sub Division.

Inflow decreases, coracle operations resume in Hogenakkal

DHARMAPURI: The district administration lifted the ban on tourism and coracle operations at Hogenakkal as the flow in the Cauvery river dropped to 4,000 cusecs on Wednesday. Following this, a large group of people gathered at Hogenakkal to offer worship on the occasion of Aadi Perukku, the 18th day of the Tamil month. The ban was imposed a week ago after the water level swelled to 20,000 cusecs. Pennagaram Block Development Officer C Kalpana said, "Nearly three days ago the water inflow levels were recorded at below 10,000 cusecs and following this we lifted the ban on some tourism activities. On Wednesday, the level reduced further." ENS

DISMISSING a plea seeking compensation for damage allegedly caused by BJP functionaries in 2014 when they were prevented for campaigning for their candidat, the Madurai bench of the Madras High Court said canvassing for votes is a fundamental right and disturbing it is an electoral offence.

According to the petitioner, Habeeb Mohamed, BJP candidate for the 2014 Lok Sabha polls, Karuppu alias Muruganantham, and his supporters went on a rampage after a section of people prevented them from campaigning. Mohamed was seeking ₹15 lakh as compensation for the alleged damage. Justice GR Swamination termed the villagers' action anti-democratic. "Persons who attempt to restrain candidates and cadre from exercising their right to campaign should be dealt with an iron hand...." he said.

IISc, Goa Shipyard to build ships using AI

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

THE Director-General of Police, Karnataka Lokayukta, and Inspector-General of Police, Karnataka Lokayukta, supervised the operation.

Policemen from the offices of Lokayukta in neighbouring districts were also part of the operation.

Sources said the staff members of revenue and town planning offices allegedly demanded more than Rs 50,000 as bribe to issue building work commencement certificate, completion certificate and occupancy certificate for each single-kitchen house. They also demanded bribes to issue khatha certificates, building plan approval and other documents. In view of the increasing number of complaints against the staff members of BBMP, the raids were conducted, sources added.

Major fire at Bahour tank near Puducherry

DEBJANI DUTTA @ Puducherry

A massive fire broke out in the Bahour tank area, a biodiversity hotspot, on the Cuddalore-Puducherry border around 12.30 am on Thursday. Residents said the blazes were seen from at least two spots around the tank, which is a vital nesting site for migratory birds, even till 8 pm on Thursday.

Bahour residents said they panicked seeing the flames in the Chola-era tank area. Bushes on dried parts of the lake bed were ablaze and many in the locality were awakened by the anguished cries of birds and animals in the early hours of Thursday. The inferno initially affected the Vinayagapuram area of Cuddalore district and a small portion of Aranganoor area under Bahour taluk of Puducherry.

According to sources, fire service personnel from Puducherry arrived at the tank and tried to douse the flames around noon on Thursday. The nature of the tank's bed posed challenges to the firemen, hindering their efforts to reach the affected spots quickly. "The fire broke out in Tamil Nadu area and spread to our region," divisional fire officer Puducherry K Illango told TNIE.

Since most of the area of the tank is not accessible to fire tenders, the firemen entered the tank bed on foot and tried to put out the bushes on fire using fronds.

"WHILE the demand for life-saving organs like kidneys, lungs, liver, and heart is increasing in the state, its availability has not increased accordingly. Of late, the number of people taking up organ transplants is on the rise," said Karnataka Health Minister Dinesh Gundu Rao. He said there is no noble cause bigger than donating one's organs to others, giving them a lease of life.

The minister was speaking at the Indian Organ Donation Day programme organised by the Department of Health and Family Welfare held in Bengaluru on Thursday.

"There is a need to create more awareness among people about organ donation. They should also be motivated to donate organs," Rao said.

As many hesitate to donate due to superstitious beliefs, Rao called upon religious leaders to create awareness about organ donation and motivate people to do the same.

"Even after death, our organs can give life to eight people," he said. On the occassion, Ashwini Puneeth Rajkumar, wife of the deceased actor Puneeth Rajkumar, who is seen as an inspiration for organ donation honoured 151 families who donated organs.

INDIAN EXPRESS IS NOT AN INDUSTRY. IT IS A MISSION.

— Ramnath Goenka

DO NOT LET TOURISM SUFFER, REBUILD ROAD AND RAIL CONNECTIVITY

For many years, tourism in India has remained an uncut diamond. The forex spinner is caught in a web of woes and has failed to reach its full potential. While natural disasters routinely kept the sector on tenterhooks, Covid left it comatose for three years. As the industry strives to swing back to life, the monsoon fury has wreaked havoc in several states.

After the foreign tourist inflow dropped to almost zero during the pandemic, efforts are on to rebuild the sector block by block. As per the Bureau of Immigration, India received 6.2 million foreign tourist arrivals (FTAs) in 2022 and earned ₹1.35 lakh crore in foreign exchange earnings. Of course, it is a long way to catch up with the pre-pandemic era, when the country reported a peak of 11 million foreign tourists in 2019. The tourism ministry has repeatedly affirmed that India would return to pre-pandemic levels by mid-2024. Tourism will contribute nearly $50 billion to India's GDP and $30 billion in foreign exchange earnings, thanks to a projected inflow of 15 million foreign tourists by 2024. At present, the tourism sector contributes 5% to India's GDP. The ministry has estimated that the sector can produce 137 million jobs, contribute $56 billion in forex, and expect 25 million foreign arrivals by 2030.

In 2023, too, the 'Incredible India' campaigns have worked wonders for our sun-kissed beaches, snow-capped mountains, and, of course, a string of pilgrimage destinations. Recent initiatives have been the icing on the cake. A liberalised facility of e-visas for nationals of 166 countries as well as for five sub-categories—tourism, business, medical tourism, medical attendant and conference—has been a blessing for many. Reducing the visa fee, lowering GST on hotel rooms, and opening new mountain peaks for trekking have all contributed significantly.

At this crucial juncture, the government should not let natural calamities take a toll on tourism. The state administrations should quickly re-establish road and rail connectivity on a priority basis wherever it has been washed off or disrupted due to recent cloudbursts and landslides. The sector is awaiting the National Tourism Policy which will establish tax breaks and grant industry status to hospitality projects. The government should also ensure that more star hotels and tourist-friendly facilities are built around holiday destinations and metropolitan cities. A comprehensive policy can surely push up tourism's share in India's GDP.

POLL-BOUND TELANGANA ENTERS SOP SEASON

Christmas has come early for Telangana, with Chief Minister K Chandrashekar Rao trying to play the role of Santa to perfection. He appears to be in a hurry to dole out boons for different sections and keep his pending poll promises dating back to 2018. Naturally, the state is due to go to elections in a few months. The moot question is whether the sop spree will help him reap dividends.

Take a cursory glance at his announcements—the merger of the State Road Transport Corporation with the government, clearance of the ₹19,000-crore crop loan waiver, ₹1 lakh financial aid to backward classes and minorities, ₹3 lakh assistance for construction of houses under the Gruha Lakshmi scheme, ₹17,700 crore for the second phase of the Dalit Bandhu scheme under which ₹10 lakh will be given to each beneficiary, expansion of the Hyderabad Metro Rail, and regularisation of services of village revenue assistants, among others. The crop loan waiver was first announced in 2018, but KCR had kept it pending for various reasons, including the economic slowdown due to Covid. The surprising part is the merger of the RTC which means the absorption of around 43,000 employees into the government. KCR was, at one point in time, dead against the demand. The idea seems to be to create a feel-good factor with the promise of more to come in the hope of retaining power for the third consecutive term. It is straight from the typical Indian political playbook. All parties, without exception, have done it, some successfully and others not. We will not venture into the debate over whether this so-called freebie culture is advisable. An economist would see it as the nightmare of socialism, of running out of other people's money at some point, while the politician prefers to couch it in terms of welfare economics. In reality, it is a political compulsion. In Telangana's case, the Congress is already upping the ante with a loan waiver of up to ₹2 lakh for farmers.

What is troubling, though, is the cynical attitude of announcing sops at the last minute. It is clearly based on the belief that they would sway the voters. It is up to the voters to decide if it is an insult to their intelligence or in their best interests. Their vote shows the maturity of our democracy.

QUICK TAKE

BIASED GUIDELINES

Delhi-based South Asian University, an international university funded by eight SAARC countries, mandated a bizarre students' declaration this year that they won't join strikes or activities that disturb the campus environment. Additionally, they must affirm they suffer from no psychiatric or psychological disorder. These declarations will not stand legal scrutiny and need withdrawing. Legitimate dissent characterises Indian democracy, and the Constitution backs it. The Supreme Court has even directed that the State must aid the citizens' right to assembly. And reasonable restrictions exist to take care of excesses. Similarly, declarations about students' mental status breach their right to privacy.

COLD WAR'S REVIVED AXIS: RUSSIA, CHINA AND NORTH KOREA

MANISH TEWARI

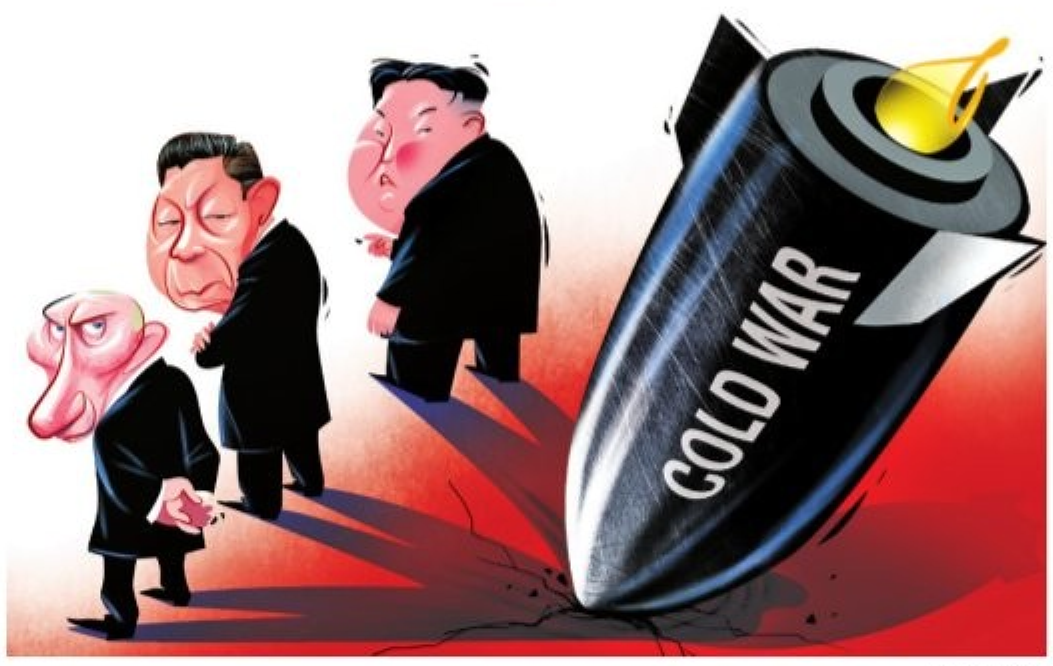
Lawyer, MP, and former Union minister



SOUMYADIP SINHA

A photograph can, at times, speak louder than a million words. The 'Victory Day' celebrations in Pyongyang, the capital of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea (DPRK or North Korea), on July 27 to mark the armistice that ended the Korean War in 1953 and the division of Korea into North and South at the 38th parallel, was underscored by a picture of the North Korean leader Kim Jong Un sharing the stage with Russian Defence Minister Sergei Shoigu, and a ranking member of the Politburo of the Communist Party of China (CPC), Li Hongzhong.

This snapshot may once again underline a significant shift in global geopolitics. It marks the resuscitation of Cold War alliances, given the fact that the Korean conflict that commenced in 1950 was the first hot war that pitted the US, the erstwhile Soviet Union (USSR), and the newly established People's Republic of China on opposing sides after the Cold war commenced at the end of WWII. While the US was fighting for the South of Korea, the erstwhile USSR and China supported the North.

After the end of the Cold War in 1989, countries such as China and even Russia as the successor state of the USSR had distanced themselves publicly from North Korea, though they continued to support it privately. North Korea was labelled a member of the alleged "axis of evil". The fact that the country is being publicly acknowledged again is a direct outcome of the repolarisation that the Russian aggression on Ukraine has unleashed.

This reindorsement of North Korea by China and Russia after the out-of-the-box summitry between the then United States president, Donald Trump, and North Korean dictator Kim Jong Un in Singapore, Hanoi and the Demilitarised Zone (DMZ) between the two Koreas to de-nuclearise North Korea, cocks a snook at the international non-proliferation order.

Five countries, namely the US, Russia, China, France and the United Kingdom, are recognised as Nuclear Weapon States (NWS) by the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty (NPT). Then there are three de facto NWS, namely India, Pakistan and North Korea, which are not a part of the NPT. Other closet nuclear weapon states have not declared their capacity publicly yet. This contradistinction between the first-age nuclear powers—declared NWS—and the second-age nuclear powers—the de facto NWS—lies at the heart of the dilemma as to how the future of the nuclear order would be shaped.

Within the de facto NWS, India falls into a unique category. It is recognised as a responsible NWS with an impeccable non-proliferation track record. That is why India got a waiver from the Nuclear Suppliers Group (NSG) for its Civil Nuclear Deal with the US in 2008. The other two, Pakistan and North Korea, are notorious as reckless nuclear and missile technology proliferators, with organic linkages between AQ Khan's Nuclear Walmart and the North Korean regime being evidenced and documented beyond refutation.

It, therefore, is a bit intriguing that both Russia and China chose to publicly re-associate themselves with North Korea after a fairly long hiatus, for, in addition to signalling that they are prepared to overlook the past track record of nuclear proliferation, this realignment of political constellations has implications for the strategic stability of North Asia and East Asia where the United States and China are direct rivals and Russia also has a formidable naval presence in Vladivostok where the Pacific Fleet of the Russian Navy is based.

A little flashback would help provide context. At the end of WWII, the world was divided into two camps: the American-led NATO and the Soviet-led Warsaw Pact. However, the extent of these cleavages went beyond hard power as both blocs attempted to promote their ideas, values and ideologies through the medium of culture too.

The Soviet bloc used to organise the World Festival of Youth and Students, which commenced in 1947. The event showcased global youth solidarity with communist and socialist worldviews. It was positioned against Western expansionism and colonisation of the mind space by 'pulp mores'. Ironically enough, it was curated by totalitarian states of the Soviet bloc that themselves did not have a shred of respect for either dissent or human rights.

The 13th World Festival of Youth and Students was held in North Korea in July 1989. Thousands of young people travelled in Aeroflot planes from around the world to Pyongyang for festivities in a nation ravaged by malnutrition, stunting, paranoia and a chilling record of arbitrary disappearances of those who fell out of favour with the leadership. It was the last time North Korea ever organised an event of such grandiose scale as afterwards, it was subjected to enhanced Western sanctions and global isolation.

The end of the Cold War in 1989 led to the decade of Pax Americana till 2001, during which the United States enjoyed global hegemony with little resistance. However, the rise of China and other regional powers has caused the world to shift back to a fuzzy world order, often referred to as multipolar—it certainly is not.

This change compelled the United States to look beyond its hub and spoke security alliance system, which stretches from Japan all the way down to Australia, at its engagement efforts in the broader Indo-Pacific region to prevent countries from falling within China's sphere of influence. Moreover, the United States has also spearheaded the creation of security pacts such as AUKUS and re-emphasised its attention towards institutions such as the QUAD to restrain China. On the other hand, China has also doubled down on its investment via the Belt and Road Initiative and its commitments towards the Shanghai Cooperation Organisation paradigm.

The revitalisation of the Russia-China-North Korea axis, coupled with the symbiotic relationship between China and North Korea with Pakistan and the evolving friendship between Russia and Pakistan, creates a formidable block of nuclear-armed states from the far East to the far West of Asia encompassing the Asian heartland. If Iran tomorrow joins this axis, given that it makes no secret of its desire to acquire nuclear weapons, this grouping can create a significant new strategic headache for India also, in addition to the strategic consequences for North and East Asia. Distant photos can, at times, have portentous reverberations.

THE UNFASHIONABLE ART OF NATION-BUILDING

K JAYAKUMAR

Former Kerala chief secretary and ex-VC, Thunchath Ezhuthachan Malayalam University

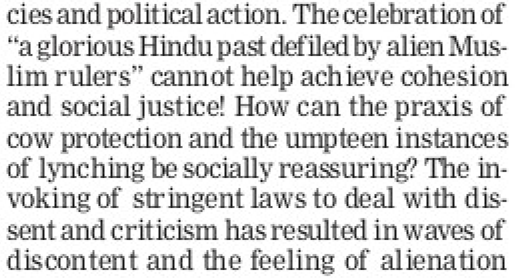
Jawaharlal Nehru was never tired of repeating the importance of nation-building. Taking over the reins of administration of a bruised nation in 1947, Nehru and his colleagues had a humongous task at hand: building a forward-looking nation out of a fractured polity. And that was possible only by keeping the nation engaged in the single task of common welfare, regardless of the mind-boggling differences. The spirit of antyodaya, or the welfare of the most underprivileged—that Gandhi zealously espoused during the Nationalist Movement—formed the basic ethos of Independent India.

Nehru distilled this sentiment in his Tryst with Destiny speech when he reaffirmed the new nation's resolve to "wipe every tear from every eye". He elaborated this idea in his inimitable style: "The service of India means, the service of the millions who suffer. It means the ending of poverty and ignorance and poverty and disease and inequality of opportunity." Indeed, Nehru emphasises the ideal of social, economic and political justice, which the Constitution of India eventually solemnised in its Preamble. There is an unmistakable realisation in Nehru's words and the Constitution that the idea of justice forms the bedrock of nation-building.

The policies and programmes of the nascent India under Nehru—be it building huge dams for power generation and irrigation, creating mega public sector undertakings in core sectors, or fostering a planned economy—were driven by the ideal of achieving social and economic justice. Today's market economy messiahs as well as the know-it-all political leaders, who systematically vilify and often lampoon Nehruvian economics, are chronically myopic when it comes to history.

The act of nation-building takes place within the four dimensions of justice. The Preamble mentions three: justice, social, economic and political. But the fourth dimension of emotional justice plays a significant role too. The three other forms of justice will not get absorbed by the body polity if they are not accompanied by the emotional dimension. The pillar of emotional bonding was strengthened during the first 20 years of Independent India, making nation-building an achievable goal. But from the days of the Emergency, the nation-building project began to wobble and today, it has run out of steam.

All the four dimensions of nation-building are today in disarray. The trust of the religious minorities and the socially marginalised sections of the population has been shaken by disruptive and skewed policies and political action. The celebration of "a glorious Hindu past defiled by alien Muslim rulers" cannot help achieve cohesion and social justice! How can the praxis of cow protection and the umpteen instances of lynching be socially reassuring? The invoking of stringent laws to deal with dissent and criticism has resulted in waves of discontent and the feeling of alienation among socially vulnerable groups. Repeated instances of crass social injustice have already been damaging for the nation.



PTI

> Several institutions that enjoyed a fair name for freedom and integrity have undergone such malignant mutations ... that political justice has been totally compromised

Economic justice, too, has become a mirage with the strengthening of a new corporate oligarchy and the ensuing economic disparities. The economic policies of the Central government believe in the presumed fairness of the market and capital. The government is slowly withdrawing from all social sectors to align with neoliberal economic principles.

Any talk about affirmative action or the entitlements of the poor and weak is bad economics in today's India. The government's spending on health and education as a percentage of the GDP has only gone down in the past nine years, despite the contrasting claims and announcements. Subsidies are viewed as an economic sin and mercilessly axed. With growing unemployment, inflation, price rise, the new labour laws and the clear stand against subsidies and welfare schemes, economic justice is a distant dream. Not to mention the agriculture sector which is in utter stress. The economic distress of the farmer, the anxiety of the wage-earning class, and the helplessness of the marginalised citizen—are getting worse by the day. What kind of nation-building is possible when economic justice is not only missing but seems to be a forgotten, forgettable ideal?

The political fissures and the prevailing sense of injustice are far too obvious for a recap. Of course, political justice is not the by-product of the same party coming to power at the Centre and the States. Political justice, despite political differences, can be achieved only through the role of strong institutions protected from the vagaries of power politics. But when such institutions are cleverly enfeebled and their autonomy systematically scooped out, political justice becomes an impossible ideal.

Several institutions that enjoyed a fair name for freedom and integrity have undergone such malignant mutations in recent history that political justice has been totally compromised. States ruled by opposition parties and coalitions are aggrieved either by the arbitrariness of the governors or the unfriendly acts of the Central government, as seen in the attitude towards the new Anna Bhagya scheme of the Karnataka government or the capping of the Kerala government's borrowing limits. In such moral darkness, the project of nation-building wilts and withers.

Nation-building is possible only if there is a common consensus. When consensus is considered a weakness, how can this project survive? In today's fractured emotional dimension, it is unsurprising that the Meities and Kukis have been fighting like enemies in Manipur for three months and the nation watches with sterile inaction or pretend-blindness. The emotional strands that hold diverse people together have been ruffled and snapped. Nation-building has regressed, and nation 'culling' has been silently endorsed as a preferred game. The State has no arms now to wipe the tears from the eyes of the poor.

LS clears Delhi Services Bill amid Oppn walkout

Delhi being UT, Centre enjoys full rights to make rules for it: Amit Shah

PREETHA NAIR @ New Delhi

Union home minister Amit Shah speaks in the Lok Sabha on Thursday | PTI

AMID an Opposition walkout, the Lok Sabha on Thursday passed the Delhi Services Bill (The Government of National Capital Territory of Delhi (Amendment) Bill, 2023 after four-hour-long fiery exchanges between the Opposition and the treasury benches.

As Speaker Om Birla put the Bill to vote, the Opposition walked out. The controversial bill will replace an ordinance by the Centre to restore the Lieutenant Governor's control over the transfer and postings of bureaucrats in Delhi.

Initiating the discussion, Union Home Minister Amit Shah asserted that Parliament has the power to make laws for the national capital. In a broadside on the Arvind Kejriwal-led Aam Aadmi Party, he said that AAP wanted to control the vigilance department to hide corruption and build bungalows.

"The Opposition's priority is to save their alliance. They are not worried about Manipur. Delhi is not a state but a Union Territory... Parliament has the right to make laws for Delhi," he said.

Opposing the Bill, Congress Lok Sabha leader Adhir Ranjan Chowdhury said the bill was an attack on India's federal structure. "The Centre came up with an ordinance six days after the Supreme Court ruling. What was the hurry? The government will replicate this model in other states and UTs," Chowdhury said.

NCP's Supriya Sule accused the BJP of double standards for promising full statehood for Delhi in every election. "Were you lying about it? The BJP government broke J&K into three UTs. Even after four years, no election has been held in the state," she said.

Congress MPs Shashi Tharoor and Karti Chidambaram said the Bill was an assault on democratic heritage. "When a no-confidence motion is pending, how can you bring such a substantive policy change," asked Tharoor.

DMK's Dayanidhi Maran said, "BJP's allies are the ED, CBI and other agencies. Delhi has an elected government and BJP cannot digest it. They went to the SC for the ED director's extension. The Enforcement Directorate is their winning formula," he said.

BILL ON OFFSHORE MINERAL LEASE PASSED

A Bill to provide a fixed 50-year production lease for offshore minerals was passed by Rajya Sabha on Thursday amid a walkout by the Opposition members over the situation in ethnic violence-hit Manipur. When the Upper House reassembled for the post-lunch session, Coal and Mines Minister Pralhad Joshi moved The Offshore Areas Mineral (Development and Regulation) Amendment Bill-2023 for consideration. Discussion on the Bill continued even after members of opposition parties, including the Congress, RJD, TMC, AAP, CPI and CPM, staged a walkout from RS for the second time in the day.

BIRLA STAYS AWAY IN THE FIRST HALF

Lok Sabha Speaker Om Birla on Thursday skipped the House proceedings in the first half to express displeasure over disruptions and returned post-lunch only after several opposition leaders met him and assured him that they would maintain the dignity of the chair. The Speaker had skipped the House proceedings on Wednesday too, upset at the repeated disruptions. Birla did not turn up for the Question Hour on Thursday, prompting Congress leader Adhir Ranjan Chowdhury to make a plea to him to return.

I DON'T NEED TO DEFEND PM: DHANKAR

Rajya Sabha chairman Jagdeep Dhankhar on Thursday came down heavily on the Congress for accusing him of defending the Prime Minister, saying he does not need to defend someone who has got global recognition and electoral mandates in 2014 and 2019. He urged members of the treasury benches to ask opposition not to walk out.

AAP MP SUSPENDED FROM LS FOR UNRULY BEHAVIOUR

The Lok Sabha on Thursday suspended newly elected AAP member Sushil Kumar Rinku for the remaining part of the monsoon session for unruly behaviour in the House. As the Lok Sabha passed the Government of National Capital Territory of Delhi (Amendment) Bill, Rinku came to the well of the house, tore some papers and threw them in the direction of Speaker Om Birla. After the Bill was passed, Birla objected to Rinku's conduct in the House and asked Parliametary Affairs Minister Pralhad Joshi to move a resolution for the AAP member's suspension. Birla formally named Rinku for conduct unbecoming of a member of the Lok Sabha.

SC questions if Article 370 amendable

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

HEARING pleas challenging the abrogation of Article 370 for the second day, the Supreme Court on Thursday called the Constitution a live document, and asked if the special provision could be amended if all of Kashmir wanted it.

"According to you, neither the Assembly can do it nor can Parliament do it. So, what you are saying is that while other provisions of the Constitution may be capable of an amendment by a process envisaged, other than it is hit by basic structure, this is one provision that can never be amended. Having permanency, the whole concept is that the Constitution is also a living document," Justice SK Kaul told senior advocate Kapil Sibal. Sibal stood firm on his submission that the abrogation could only be done after the constituent assembly's recommendation.

"At some stage, can we say that there is no mechanism whatsoever for changing it even if everyone wants to change it and it doesn't affect the basic structure," asked Justice Kaul.

Terming the issue regarding Art 370's character as "debatable," a five-judge bench comprising CJI DY Chandrachud, Justices SK Kaul, Sanjiv Khanna, BR Gavai and Surya Kant said that two issues that required deliberation were whether the provision acquired "permanent feature" and if the methodology adopted for abrogation was right or wrong.

While National Conference leader Mohammad Akbar Lone's counsel Kapil Sibal submitted that the President's rule cannot be invoked for decimating democracy and that the legislature did not have the power for recommending abrogation of Article 370 as per the J&K Constitution, the CJI asked if permanency can be a consequence, which follows from the Constitution of J&K. Justice Kaul also asked, "Can the Constitution of J&K give permanency to Art 370 of the Constitution of India?"

When Sibal contended that the Governor and Central government acted in tandem as they wanted to get rid of Article 370, the CJI asked as to what constitutional mechanism will the President have to follow if there was a proposal to modify the said article in 2019. He further questioned as to what could have happened if Maharaja was replaced by an elected government of J&K.

The Supreme Court on Thursday stayed an order of the Calcutta High court directing the CBI to interrogate jailed TMC MLA Manik Bhattacharya in connection with alleged irregularities in the teachers' recruitment case. In a special sitting, a bench of Justices A S Bopanna and Sanjay Kumar noted that the HC passed the order even though Bhattacharya was not a party to the proceedings before it. The top court, however, clarified that others linked to the case can be interrogated as directed by the HC. The SC also asked its secretary general to communicate the order to the registrar general of the Calcutta HC, who shall place this order before the judge concerned immediately.

Patna HC order on caste survey challenged

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

A PLEA has been filed in the Supreme Court, challenging the Patna High Court's verdict of upholding Bihar government's move to conduct a caste-based survey for determination of backward communities.

The first phase of the survey, which was a household counting exercise, had begun on January 7 and completed by January 21. The second phase, wherein the aim was to collect information on people's caste and socio-economic conditions, had started on April 15. It was to be completed by May 2023.

An HC bench ruled on August 1, 2023 that caste has been found to be an important indicator in order to understand backwardness as historically the deprivations visited on communities were based on their caste names.

Challenging the HC's decision, the plea said that only the Union government is empowered to conduct census.

PM to attend BRICS Summit in Joburg

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi on Thursday said that he would be taking part in the BRICS Summit in Johannesburg from August 22-24.

Modi and South Africa's President Cyril Ramaphosa spoke over the telephone late Thursday, following which the Prime Minister confirmed his participation in the Summit.

"Pleased to speak with President Ramaphosa. We reviewed our progress in bilateral cooperation as we celebrate 30th anniversary of our diplomatic relations. I look forward to participating in the BRICS Summit in Johannesburg later this month," said Modi.

President Ramaphosa also exchanged views on a number of regional and global issues of mutual interest. He conveyed his support to India's initiatives as part of its ongoing G20 presidency and said that he looked forward to visiting India to attend the G20 Summit in September.

Earlier, speculations on whether Modi would attend the BRICS Summit in-person had emerged after Russian President Vladimir Putin confirmed that he would attend the meet virtually.

MEA summons German envoy in Baby Ariha's repatriation case

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

Baby Ariha's mother Dhara Shah outside Parliament on Wednesday | PTI

GERMAN Ambassador Dr Philipp Ackermann was summoned by the Ministry of External Affairs (MEA) this week over the fate of Baby Ariha who has been under forced German foster care since September 2021. The child was only seven months old when she was taken away from her parents.

"The cultural rights of the child who is in German foster care, and as an Indian, her rights have been infringed upon and we have always taken a strong view about this. Our concerns were conveyed to the German Ambassador, who was summoned this week. We will continue to press for the child's return to India,'' said MEA spokesperson Arindam Bagchi on Thursday.

The child has been away from her biological parents since she was seven months old (in September 2021). Her parents have continued to fight for her child's custody and the Indian government has urged Germany to send the child back to India.

Meanwhile, the Jain community has been taking out protest marches in Germany and India, in support of the child to return to her parents. They had earlier threatened to boycott German goods.

On Wednesday, Samajwadi MP Jaya Bachchan introduced the child's mother, Dhara Shah, to a group of MPs. "I am presenting Dhara Shah in front of everyone. Her daughter Ariha Shan has been taken by the German government for over two years now and she is seeking help from parliamentarians," said Samajwadi Party MP Jaya Bachchan, adding that the child was taken into foster care over cultural differences.

"A strong stand has been taken by the Germans and we will put in a request to the External Affairs Minister and the German Embassy as well. We request the Indian government to bring the child and keep her at a foster home in India. The necessary judgment should be made by the Indian government,'' Jaya Bachchan added.

This is not the first time that MPs have come forward to extend support for the child.

On June 3, 59 MPs from 19 political parties had written to the German Ambassador asking for early repatriation of Ariha Shah. The MPs included Jaya Bachchan, Hema Malini, Shashi Tharoor, Farooq Abduallah and Priyanka Chaturvedi.

Cultural rights

Our concerns were conveyed to the German Ambassador, who was summoned this week. We will continue to press for the child's return to India," said spokesperson of the Ministry of External Affairs, Arindam Bagchi, on Thursday.

2 Indian warships reach Papua New Guinea

MAYANK SINGH @ New Delhi

IN a significant military-diplomatic move, two warships of the Indian Navy reached the southwestern Pacific island nation Papua New Guinea with the aim to strengthen ties between the two nations.

"Indian Naval Ships Sahyadri and Kolkata, mission deployed in the Eastern IOR (Indian Ocean Region), arrived at Port Moresby on Aug 2 for enhancing maritime partnership and cooperation with Papua New Guinea (PNG), in South Pacific," said the Indian Navy on Thursday.

"The port call is aimed at strengthening ties between India and Papua New Guinea in the maritime domain," the Navy added.

Elaborating on the planned activities, the Navy said that during the port call, the crew from the two ships will engage with personnel from Papua New Guinea's defence forces in a wide range of activities including professional interactions, cultural exchanges, yoga sessions and ship visits.

Papua New Guinea is located in the South Pacific, which is a sub-region of the larger Indo-Pacific and is considered important from the point of view of geopolitics of the region. China has been involved in the area by extending financial support and building infrastructure.

INS Sahyadri is the third ship of the indigenously designed and built (Project-17 class) multi-role stealth frigate and is commanded by Captain Rajan Kapoor.

INS Kolkata is the first ship of the indigenously designed and built (Project-15A class) destroyers and is commanded by Captain Sharad Sinsunwal.

Both the ships have been built at Mazagon Dock Ltd in Mumbai and are armed with an array of modern weapons and sensors, which can address threats in all three dimensions.

Under its Act East policy, India has been expanding and strengthening its ties beyond the ASEAN (Association of South-East Asian Nations), with emphasis on strengthening ties with 14 Pacific island countries. These 14 Pacific island countries include Fiji, Papua New Guinea, Kiribati, Cook Islands, Nauru, Tuvalu, Tonga, Solomon Islands, Samoa, Niue, Vanuatu, Palau, Marshall Islands and Micronesia.

Although Papua New Guinea, which is part of these islands, is geographically remote, they have strategic significance for India as they sit astride important sea lines of communication and important trade routes through which crucial maritime trade is conducted.

Nitish to contest from UP for '24 Lok Sabha polls?

Speculation also rife that he may be chosen as INDIA coordinator

RAMASHANKAR @ Patna

AHEAD of the Opposition leaders' meeting in Mumbai, there is an intense speculation over whether Bihar chief minister Nitish Kumar will contest the 2024 Lok Sabha election from Phulpur in neighboring Uttar Pradesh.

Last year too, there were rumours about Nitish contesting from Phulpur, but his party, the JD-U, rejected it. However, this time, JD-U has itself started a discussion on it.

Senior party leader and minister in grand alliance government Shrawan Kumar said that party workers from various UP constituencies wanted Nitish to contest the Lok Sabha election from that state.

Sharawan Kumar, who is the state rural development minister, said UP leaders wanted to meet Nitish to convey their feelings and have sought an appointment. Shrawan had gone on a two-day visit to Uttar Pradesh from July 31 to attend a meeting of party workers of the party.

Senior JD-U minister said that being in-charge of UP JD (U), whenever he was on a tour to UP recently, people wanted Nitish to contest election from any constituency, either Phulpur, Pratappur, Jaunpur, Ambedkar Naga or any other place of his choice.

However, no reaction has come from Nitish Kumar on the issue. The JD-U has given the responsibility to three party leaders to prepare the ground for Nitish in Phulpur, sources in the party said.

Besides senior JD-U minister Shrawan Kumar, Nalanda MP Kaushalendra Kumar and MLC Sanjay Singh had also been engaged in the work. Under this strategy, they are continuously camping in the area and creating an atmosphere.

Nitish who has been successful in bringing 15 political parties together in the first meeting of the Opposition parties in state capital is expected to play a greater role at the national level. There is also speculation that Nitish may be declared the coordinator of I.N.D.I.A. (the opposition conclave) at Mumbai meeting.

Earlier, JD-Uchief Rajiv Ranjan Singh alias Lalan Singh had also given a hint about it although he had also claimed that no final decision on Nitish contesting LS election had been taken but there is a demand from JD (U) workers from Phulpur, Ambedkar Nagar and Jaunpur that Nitish should be fielded as a candidate from either of the seats. Former Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru represented Phulpur in Lok Sabha in 1952, 1957 and 1962.

'Demand from people'

Wadettiwar named LoP of Maha House

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Mumbai

MAHARASHTRA state assembly speaker Rahul Narvekar, after a delay of two days on Thursday, announced the appointment of Maharashtra Congress MLA Vijay Wadettiwar as Leader of Oppositions for the state assembly.

The 60-year-old has become Leader of Opposition for the second time. He was elected from Chimur constituency from Chandrapur district. In 2019, when Congress leader and former LoP Radhakrishna Vikhe Patil had left the Congress and joined the BJP, Wadettiwar was appointed as a LoP ahead of the Lok Sabha and state assembly elections at the time. Congress had won only one Lok Sabha seat out of 48 in Maharashtra, that was the home district of Wadettiwar — Chandrapur. The seat is now lying vacant after the death of LS MP Balu Dhanorkar.

CM Eknath Shinde congratulated Wadettiwar for his appointment and said that he is a man who works on the field, not from home. Born in 1962, Wadettiwar started his political career with Congress student wing – NSUI, then in 90s. He won his first Assembly poll in 2004 from Chimur constituency as a Shiv Sena candidate.

HC judge recuses self from Teesta's plea to quash case

@ Ahmedabad

Gujarat High Court Judge Samir J Dave recused himself today from hearing an appeal filed by activist Teesta Setalvad to quash the case against her by the Gujarat Police accusing her of manipulating evidence in the 2002 Gujarat riots.

"Not before me… Place it before the Chief Justice for possible transfer to another bench," Justice Dave responded when Teesta's advocate brought up the case for hearing in his court.

In order to bring the case before the proper court, the Gujarat High Court Chief Justice order is now required.

This is not the first time. In November last year, Justice Dave recused himself from hearing Setalvad's bail application in the case. On June 24, 2022, the Supreme Court rejected a plea filed by Zakia Jafri, whose husband, former Congress MP Ehsan Jafri, was killed during the riots, challenging the SIT's clean chit awarded to then chief minister Narendra Modi and others in the 2002 Godhra riots cases.

While dismissing the petition, the Supreme Court stated, "It appears to us that a concerted effort of disgruntled officials of the State of Gujarat, together with others, was to create a sensation by making revelations that were false to their own knowledge."

Soon after the SC verdict, Ahmedabad Detection of Crime Branch (DCB) filed an FIR against Activist Teesta Setalvad, former Director General of Police RB Sreekumar, and Former IPS Sanjeev Bhatt for plotting to falsely implicate innocent persons in the Gujarat riots of 2002. Setalvad has been booked under sections 468 (forgery for the purpose of cheating) and 194 (giving or fabricating false evidence) of IPC.

Follow restraint on screen: Akhilesh to spokespersons

With developments like Gyanvapi court battle and Haryana communal flare-up turning the situation communally volatile, Samajwadi Party president Akhilesh Yadav has advised his party's spokespersons to follow restraint while taking part in TV debates. "You might be provoked through incendiary remarks to counter it with equal firepower. But it's a trap. Try not to fall into such ploys," he has reportedly told all his spokespersons. The caution has come after party MLC and BJP turncoat Swami Prasad Maurya's diatribe claiming that Badrinath temple was built after demolishing the original Buddhist shrine.

BJP MP in a fix over father's barbs

BJP MP from Badaun Sanghmitra Maurya seems to be in a fix. With father Swami Prasad Maurya, having not only switched to the SP, but also opening a floodgate of religious diatribes against his daughter's party, Sanghmitra has fallen into an odd situation. She even said that if she gets a green signal from the top leadership of the BJP, she would bring back her father to the saffron fold. "Political differences shouldn't break a family. I won't let that happen with me," she now keeps saying. This may be a clear indication that she is planning to stay put in the BJP.

Burnt remains of minor found, locals suspect gangrape

RAJESH ASNANI @ Jaipur

IN a horrendous case in Rajasthan's Bhilwara district, a minor girl was allegedly gangraped and burnt alive in a brick kiln. The 14-year-old reportedly went out to graze her family's cattle when she was abducted, gangraped and then burnt, locals allege.

The opposition BJP which has been attacking the Congress government on deteriorating law and order has latched onto the issue and strong protests are being mounted on the horror. When the girl went missing, her relatives launched a search and made a gruesome discovery near an open smoldering coal furnace. They found the remains of the girl's body, along with her bracelet and sandal, fueling fears of a brutal gangrape and murder, with the body being disposed off in the coal furnace. This revelation has sparked anger among the local populace.

As per the her's elder brother, during the search, just outside the village, a furnace for making coal was found burning in the Kalbelia camp. Some Kalbelia individuals were caught by villagers. Investigations are on, cops said.

U'khand's Khamrauli village reports fresh cases of land subsidence in 25 buildings

NARENDRA SETHI @ Dehradun

FRESH cases of land subsidence, which first gained prominence in Joshimath early this year, have been reported in Khamrauli village of Bamtad Khat in Kalsi tehsil of Dehradun district. With the land unusually submerged, cracks between houses are widening, posing a threat to residents of 25 buildings. These cracks are visible from rooms to courtyards in the village, which has a population of 50 families.

"During the 2013 disaster, some cracks were seen here, which have now widened. There is an atmosphere of panic among the people. There are many houses in the village which are on the verge of collapse," Shamsher Singh Tomar, former village head of Khamrauli, told this newspaper.

"The villagers have told me that they fear that if no measures are taken to solve the problem soon, the situation will resemble like Joshimath," he told said.

The house of one Gyan Singh Tomar is one of the buildings affected by the sinking of the land. Similarly, the cracks in the houses of village residents Bhagat Singh and Rajendra Tomar have also widened.

"The government primary school Khamroli, where new cracks have come up and the old one has also been widened, is on the verge of collapse," said Gyan Singh Tomar, adding, "My own house has also been damaged and more than 50 per cent of the people here are affected".

Kalsi sub divisional magistrate Yukta Mishra said, "We had received some complaints regarding the cracks on which we have taken immediate action and sent tehsil staff to investigate the spot, but there is nothing to panic".

JOSHIMATH REDUX

- Joshimath, the gateway to Badrinath Dham, had reported its first case of land submergence in the first week of January this year
- A total of 868 buildings had developed cracks
- In January, the state government formed a committee of eight institutes comprising experts and scientists to ascertain the causes of the disaster
- While 278 families were housed in relief camps, 149 people have been given compensation for their buildings

Manipur mass burial plan put on hold as home ministry, HC intervene

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @ Guwahati

THE mass burial of tribals killed in the ethnic violence in Manipur was put on hold on Thursday following a request by the Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) to delay it.

The Manipur High Court also issued an order calling for the maintenance of "status quo ante" at the land where the burial of 35 tribals, including three females, was planned on Thursday. Tension flared up surrounding the proposed site of burial, with both Meiteis and Kukis laying claim to it.

The Indigenous Tribal Leaders' Forum (ITLF) said the decision to defer the burial was taken in deference to MHA's request. "We had a marathon meeting last night till 4 in the morning. MHA requested us to delay the burial for 5 days, saying that if we comply, we will be allowed to bury the dead at the same location and the govt will legalize the land for the burial. This request also came from the Mizoram CM," it said.

"We will consider MHA's request if they give us a written assurance on five demands. If it fails to do so, we will continue the burial as planned. If we get the assurance, we will continue with the program but postpone the burial," the tribal organisation added.

Junior home minister Nityanand Rai too appealed to both the communities to maintain peace and communal harmony. The ITLF's demands include the legalisation of the burial site in S Boljang.

It demanded that "Meitei state forces" are not deployed to any of the hill districts for the safety of the Kuki-Zo communities. Further, it demanded that the bodies of Kuki-Zo tribals lying in Imphal be brought to Churachandpur; that the political demand of "total separation" from Manipur is sped up and tribal jail inmates in Imphal are transferred to other states for their safety.

In its order, Manipur HC said: "The State Government and the Central Government and their law enforcing agencies/personnel as well as the public belonging to both the communities are directed to maintain status quo ante of the land in question till the next date (August 9)."

"The Central Government and the State Government… and any aggrieved parties are directed to make an effort to make amicable settlement in this matter," it added.

Industrial development to get fillip in Bundelkhand

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

WITH the ongoing development of the six nodes of UP Defence corridor, the state government has now shifted its focus to accelerating industrial development of Chitrakoot and Jhansi nodes in Bundelkhand region of the state.

The details of the industrial plots falling under these two nodes have been issued afresh by the Uttar Pradesh Expressways Industrial Development Authority (UPEIDA).

It is mainly a short description of the available industrial plots in the industrial land banks of the two nodes, including the area and its estimated current price.

The other four nodes of the ambitious defence corridor project included Agra, Aligarh, Lucknow and Kanpur.

With focus on the development of parched and backward Bundelkhand region of the state, CM Yogi has asked different departments including Industrial Development department, UPSIDA, UPEIDA and others to put their acts together for bringing about palpable change in the two districts identified as two nodes of the Defence Corridor.

UPEIDA is busy presenting the industrial plots listed under Industrial Land Banks in the Jhansi and Chitrakoot node to the investors and industrialists afresh for auction. A total of 38 plots have been listed in the Chitrakoot node at the rate of ₹433.57 per square meter and 45 in Jhansi at the rate of ₹362.28 per square meter.

In this way, 160.62 acres of land in Chitrakoot and 383.01 acres in Jhansi is currently being showcased by UPEIDA. UPEIDA has sought applications from interested investors and entrepreneurs for allotment of land on these nodes through the Nivesh Mitra portal.

Recently, in a significant move, UPEIDA denotified villages that were earlier notified as development areas under proposed Greater Noida-Ballia 8-lane expressway project.

In all 41 tehsils falling under 19 districts including Badaun, Lucknow, Kanpur Nagar, Gautam Budh Nagar, Aligarh, Ghazipur, Ballia, Mirzapur, Varanasi, Sant Ravidas Nagar, Bulandshahr, Prayagraj, Kasganj, Hardoi, Pratapgarh, Farrukhabad, Shahjahanpur, Rae Bareli and Unnao, were de-notified. With the de-notification of the tehsils and villages, their land will now be available for the investors interested in establishing units.

The Uttar Pradesh Defence Industrial Corridor (UP DIC) is an aspirational project that intends to reduce foreign dependency of Indian Aerospace & Defence Sector. It will witness manufacturing of drones, aircraft, Brahmos missiles and electronic warfare systems

AT A GLANCE

Uttar Pradesh Defence Industrial Corridor (UPDIC) is an aspirational project that intends to reduce foreign dependency of Indian Aerospace & Defence Sector

The corridor was announced by PM Narendra Modi during the first Investors' Summit which took place in Lucknow in February, 2018

The Uttar Pradesh Expressways Industrial Development Authority (UPEIDA) is the nodal agency to execute this project in conjunction with various other state agencies

The project would witness manufacturing of drones, aircraft, Brahmos missiles and electronic warfare systems

The six nodes across the UP Defence Industrial Corridor include Agra and Aligarh in western UP, Lucknow and Kanpur in Central UP and Chitrakoot and Jhansi in Bundelkhand region

IT AIMS TO BRING UP THE STATE AS ONE OF THE LARGEST & ADVANCED DEFENCE MANUFACTURING HUBS AND PUT IT ON THE WORLD MAP

As per the Uttar Pradesh government sources, for UP Defence Industrial Corridor, 109 Memorandums of Understanding have been signed so far with industries worth potential investments of ` 12,139 crore. Already, ` 2,422 crore have been invested in the Corridor. Over 95% (1,608 hectare) of the 1,700 hectares of land required for the project had been acquired for development of UPDIC

J'khand House passes law to curb cheating in exams, question paper leaks

MUKESH RANJAN @Ranchi

TO crack down on the use of unfair means and irregularities in examinations and curb on the incidents of question paper leaks, 'The Jharkhand Competitive Examination (Measure for Control and Prevention of Unfair Means in Recruitment) Bill, 2023' was passed during the monsoon session of Jharkhand Assembly.

As per the bill, if an examinee is caught cheating or making others cheat, they could be sentenced for a period of one year in jail and imposed a fine of ₹5 lakh.

For second-time offenders, the jail term could go up to three years and fine up to ₹10 lakh. There is also a provision of fine up to ₹2-10 crore for any kind of misconduct by coaching centers and other educational institutions in addition to imprisonment for 10 years up to life term.

If the charge sheet is filed against any candidate in the court, they will be barred from appearing in any examination for 2 to 5 years. And if they are convicted by the court, the candidate will not be able to appear in the examination for 10 years.

Notably, there is a provision of sending the candidate and the agencies to jail without any preliminary investigation and registration of an FIR in case they are caught adopting unfair means during competitive examinations, which was opposed strongly by the opposition parties.

BJP and AJSU MLAs walked out in the House tearing the copy of the bill saying that they will go to Raj Bhavan and Court against the bill. BJP MLA Amar Kumar Bouri said it will lead to harassment for the job aspirants and give opportunity to the corrupt officials to misuse the law.

"Quantum of punishment provided in the bill is up to life imprisonment and fine up to ₹10 crore, which needs reconsideration as it may spoil the career of a job aspirant for one mistake of recruitment agencies," said Bauri.

It is wrong to give immunity to erring government officials taking their acts as taken in 'good faith', he added.

CPI (M-L) legislator Vinod Singh also supported them and advised sending the bill to the select committee for reconsideration.

Chief Minister Hemant Soren supported by parliamentary affairs minister Alamgir Alam, speaking in favour of the bill, said that it was in the interest of lakhs of honest students, and further adding that the bill has been introduced and passed by several other BJP ruled states.

₹5 LAKH FINE

As per the bill, if an examinee is caught cheating or making others cheat, they could be sentenced for one year in jail and imposed a fine of ` 5 lakh. For second-time offenders, the jail term could go up to three years and a fine of ` 10 lakh. There is a provision of fine up to ` 2-10 crore for misconduct by coaching centers.

Supporters of Niger's ruling junta hold a Russian flag at the start of a protest called to fight for the country's freedom in Niamey, Niger on Thursday | AP

Hundreds rally in support of junta in Niger's capital

NIAMEY

HUNDREDS of people rallied in support of Niger's ruling junta in the capital on Thursday, denouncing France and others who have criticised a recent coup—as the country's military leaders sought to exploit anti-Western sentiment to shore up their takeover.

As numbers began to swell at a demonstration organised by the junta and civil society groups on Niger's independence day, protesters in Niamey pumped their fists in the air and chanted out support for neighbouring countries that have also seen military takeovers in recent years. Some waved Russian flags, and one man brandished a Russian and Nigerien flag sewn together.

United States President Joe Biden used the occasion of Niger's independence day to call for President Mohamed Bazoum to be released and democracy restored.

"The Nigerien people have the right to choose their leaders. They have expressed their will through free and fair elections—and that must be respected," he said on Thursday.

At Thursday's protest, many expressed support for the coup leaders and denounced interference from others.

The crowd at the rally was shouting "Down with France," "Long live Russia, long live (Vladimir) Putin."

"For more than 13 years, the Nigerien people have suffered injustices," said protester Moctar Abdou Issa. The junta "will get us out of this, God willing … they will free the Nigerien people. We're sick of the French," he added.

Meanwhile, Senegal said on Thursday that it will participate if the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS) decides to intervene militarily in Niger.

Foreign Minister Aissata Tall Sall said that there had been "one coup too many" in the region and cited Senegal's international commitments. "Senegalese soldiers, for all these reasons, will go there," she said. Agencies

Russia hits landmark church in Ukraine's Kherson

KYIV

RUSSIAN shelling on Thursday damaged a landmark church in the southern city of Kherson that once held the remains of a renowned 18th-century Russian commander.

Ukraine's emergency service said four of its workers were wounded in a second round of shelling as they fought the fire at St. Catherine's Cathedral. Four other persons were wounded in the first shelling attack, which also hit a trolleybus, the prosecutor general's office said. The shelling followed the severe damage sustained by a beloved Orthodox cathedral in a missile strike last week in Odesa.

The Kherson church, dating from 1781, is one of the city's most notable buildings. It once was the burial spot for Prince Grigory Potemkin, a favourite of Russian Empress Catherine the Great. Potemkin exerted Russian control through the southeast parts of modern Ukraine and annexed the Crimean Peninsula.

His remains were removed last year while the city was under Russian occupation.

Russian forces withdrew from Kherson last November in the face of Ukrainian counteroffensive. Potemkin engineered the 1784 annexation of Crimea from the Crimean Khanate.

The Ukrainian president's office said two persons were killed over the past day in Russian attacks—one in eastern Ukraine's Donetsk province and one in Zaporizhzhia province.

The Ukrainian air force said Russia launched a wave of 15 Shahed drones against the Kyiv region but all were shot down. The governor of the capital region, Ruslan Kravchenko, said there were no injuries or damage.

Ukraine's military also continued to launch attack drones deep into Russia.

The Russian Defence Ministry said six Ukrainian drones were downed in the Kaluga region, about 150 kilometres south of Moscow, the latest incident following attacks that twice hit buildings in the Russian capital that house some government ministries. Kaluga Gov. Vladislav Shapsha reported another drone was shot down later Thursday. AP

Environmental activists cover Sunak's home in black

Four Greenpeace demonstrators were arrested on Thursday after they draped the country estate of British Prime Minister Rishi Sunak in black fabric to protest his plan to expand oil and gas drilling in the North Sea

U.K. PM UNDER FIRE

As four Greenpeace members were on the roof of the British leader's country house, two others stood on the front lawn holding a banner with the words "Rishi Sunak — Oil Profits or Our Future?"

NO NEW OIL

Video posted by the group showed a crew dressed in bright red jumpsuits, helmets, and safety harnesses carrying ladders and climbing onto the roof of the Yorkshire house

They slowly unfurled long black sheets of fabric over the front of the home and held a yellow sign on the roof that read "No New Oil"

We desperately need our prime minister to be a climate leader, not a climate arsonist. Just as wildfires and floods wreck homes and lives around the world, Sunak is committing to a massive expansion of oil and gas drilling

Philip Evans, Greenpeace campaigner

We all know that climate science screams that we cannot have more fossil fuels… I am really furious on behalf of my kids. Instead of being a climate leader…he's decided that he is going to use it as a political game to try and stoke a culture war

DEFENDING SUNAK'S MOVE

A statement from Sunak's office defended the PM's climate policies

"We make no apology for taking the right approach to ensure our energy security, using the resources we have here at home so we are never reliant on aggressors like Putin for our energy," the statement said

GRANTING LICENSES IN THE NORTH SEA

Sunak announced Monday that Britain will grant hundreds of new oil and gas licenses in the North Sea to gain energy independence

The move was criticised by groups that have accused govt of backsliding on its pledge to eliminate net carbon emissions by 2050

STAGING PEACEFUL PROTEST

Sunak was not home because he is vacationing with his family in California

Greenpeace said the group chose to stage the peaceful protest at a time when no one was home at the mansion, and that the activists were trained to ensure no damage was caused to the property

PATH FOR MILITARY HARDWARE

Pakistan Cabinet quietly approves signing of new security pact with US

ISLAMABAD

PAKISTAN'S Cabinet has quietly approved the signing of a new security pact with the US, a move that indicates a fresh start in defence cooperation after years of distrust between the two nations and may open avenues for Islamabad to get military hardware from Washington, a media report said on Thursday.

Through a circulation summary, the Cabinet gave its seal of approval to sign the Communication Interoperability and Security Memorandum of Agreement, known as the CIS-MOA, between Pakistan and the US, The Express Tribune reported. However, there was no official announcement from either side about the signing of the deal.

CIS-MOA is a foundational agreement that the US signs with its allies and countries with which it wants to maintain close military and defence ties. It also provides legal cover to the US Department of Defence for ensuring the sale of military equipment and hardware to other countries.

The signing of the CIS-MOA means that the two countries are keen to maintain the institutional mechanism.

The agreement, first signed between the Joint Staff Headquarters of Pakistan and the US Department of Defence in October 2005 for 15 years, expired in 2020. The two sides have now renewed that arrangement which covers joint exercises, operations, training, basing and equipment.

The signing of the CIS-MOA indicates that the US might sell some military hardware to Pakistan in coming years, a source in Washington was quoted as saying.

However, a retired senior Army officer who previously dealt with the US played down the development and said it was not easy for Pakistan to buy military hardware from the US despite this agreement.

Pakistan was once a major recipient of military assistance from the US, but with China challenging US supremacy, things changed. PTI

Differences

Pakistan and the US maintained close defence cooperation, but their ties came under strain due to differences over the issue of Afghanistan.

14 injured in stabbing rampage in South Korea

Seoul: A man rammed a car onto a sidewalk on Thursday in South Korea, then stepped out of the vehicle and began stabbing people at a shopping mall. Authorities said at least 14 people were wounded in the country's second mass stabbing in a month.At least five persons were hurt by the car, and nine others were stabbed in the attacks that occurred in a crowded leisure district near a subway station in the city of Seongnam. Authorities arrested a suspect in his 20s at the scene and were questioning him. The head of the National Police Agency described the attack as "virtually an act of terrorism." The National Police Agency held an online meeting Thursday with regional police chiefs to discuss ways to deal with stabbings and other attacks against random targets.

Israeli cyber tech firm sold hacking product to Pak's spy agency: Report

JERUSALEM

ISRAELI cyber tech firm, Cellebrite, has sold Pakistan's Federal Investigation Agency (FIA) and various police units products that are highly intrusive and can lead to gross human rights violations, a media report said on Thursday.

The Israeli firm's products have been in use by Pakistani agencies since 2012, Ha'aretz reported in an investigative report.

Cellebrite's flagship product, UFED, is traded in Nasdaq and enables law enforcement agencies to engage in digital forensic work by hacking into password-protected cell phones and can copy information stored on the device.

In 2020, the export of forensic equipment such as that produced by Cellebrite came under the Defence Ministry's oversight, since it was included in the Wassenaar Arrangement on Export Controls for Conventional Arms and Dual-Use Goods and Technologies, which defines which dual-use (security use and civilian use) products require oversight, the Ha'aretz report noted.

However, international shipment records show that until at least 2019, Cellebrite Asia-Pacific Pte (its Singapore subsidiary) sold products directly to firms in Pakistan and to FIA, Ha'aretz reported.

Ha'aretz reported that Cellebrite's hacking tools have over the years found their way to organisations that oppress human rights activists, minorities and LGBTQ community.

Such clients include Bangladesh's notorious Rapid Action Battalion, Belarus, China (including Hongkong), Uganda, Venezuela, Indonesia, the Philippines, Russia and Ethiopia, the report said.

In other proofs presented in the report, the piece notes that in 2012, it was reported in Pakistan that the Sind Province police had acquired UFED Touch Ultimate devices made by Cellebrite. PTI

US may put army in ships to stop Iran snatch in Hormuz

DUBAI

THE US military is considering putting armed personnel on commercial ships travelling through the Strait of Hormuz, in what would be an unheard of action aimed at stopping Iran from seizing civilian vessels, five American officials told AP.

While officials offered few details of the plan, it comes as thousands of Marines and sailors on both the amphibious assault ship USS Bataan and the USS Carter Hall, a landing ship, are on their way to the Persian Gulf. Those Marines could provide the backbone for any armed guard mission in the strait, through which 20% of the world's crude oil passes.

Iran's mission to the UN did not immediately respond to a request for comment.

Five US officials, who spoke on condition of anonymity to discuss the proposal, acknowledged its broad details. The officials stressed no final decision had been made and that discussions continue between US military officials and America's Gulf Arab allies in the region.

Officials said the Marines and Navy sailors would provide the security only at the request of the ships involved.

Since 2019, Iran has seized a series of ships in the strait as part of its efforts to pressure the West over negotiations regarding its collapsed nuclear deal with world powers. AP

IFFY FUTURE

Selection of Thailand's new prime minister delayed again

BANGKOK

A parliamentary vote to select Thailand's new Prime Minister expected on Friday was delayed again after a court put off a decision in a case involving the progressive party that won May's election.

The Constitutional Court on Thursday said it needs more time to deliberate on whether to accept a petition from the state ombudsman on whether it was constitutional for Parliament to bar Move Forward Party (MFP) leader Pita Limjaroenrat from being nominated as a prime ministerial candidate a second time. The court said in a statement on Thursday that it will meet again on August 16 to decide whether to accept the petition. If accepted, the court could order the vote to be postponed until it issues a ruling.

House Speaker Wan Muhamad Noor Matha said the vote for a PM would be delayed pending the court's decision. He said Parliament will still convene on Friday to debate a Move Forward petition seeking an amendment of the military-enacted constitution to eliminate the Senate's de facto ability to veto a PM candidate.

Regardless of the court ruling, Pita's chances of being nominated again appear nil. Move Forward faces several legal challenges which its supporters see as dirty tricks deployed by its political opponents to cling to power.

One of the cases, which accuses Pita of violating the constitution by running for office while allegedly holding shares in a media company, resulted in him being suspended from Parliament last month. AP

Trump set to appear in court to face 2020 election conspiracy charges

WASHINGTON

FORMER president Donald Trump headed to federal court in the US capital on Thursday to answer historic charges of leading a criminal conspiracy that sought to defraud the American people by overturning the 2020 election.

Metal barricades were erected around the E. Barret Prettyman federal courthouse in Washington, where the arrest and arraignment of the former president will take place within sight of the US Capitol that was stormed by his supporters on January 6, 2021.

The 77-year-old Trump is expected to enter a plea of not guilty at a hearing at 4.00 pm (2000 GMT) before magistrate judge Moxila Upadhyaya.

Trump slammed the alleged "unprecedented weaponisation" of the Justice Department in a post on his Truth Social platform Thursday, accusing Biden of seeking to charge him with "as many crimes as can be concocted."

"But soon, in 2024, it will be our turn," he wrote.

"I am now going to Washington, DC to be arrested for having challenged a corrupt, rigged and stolen election," he added.

"It is a great honour, because I am being arrested for you," Trump told his followers.

The accusations that Trump and six unnamed co-conspirators plotted to upend the 2020 election is the former president's third criminal indictment since March, and the most serious of the cases threatening to derail his comeback bid.

Special counsel Jack Smith unveiled a 45-page indictment of Trump on Tuesday charging him with conspiracy to defraud the US and attempting to disenfranchise American voters with his false claims that he won the November 2020 election. "The purpose of the conspiracy was to overturn the legitimate results of the 2020 presidential election by using knowingly false claims of election fraud," the indictment said. AFP

Computer, laptop imports restricted

Import of these items would be allowed only against a valid licence, says DGFT notification

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

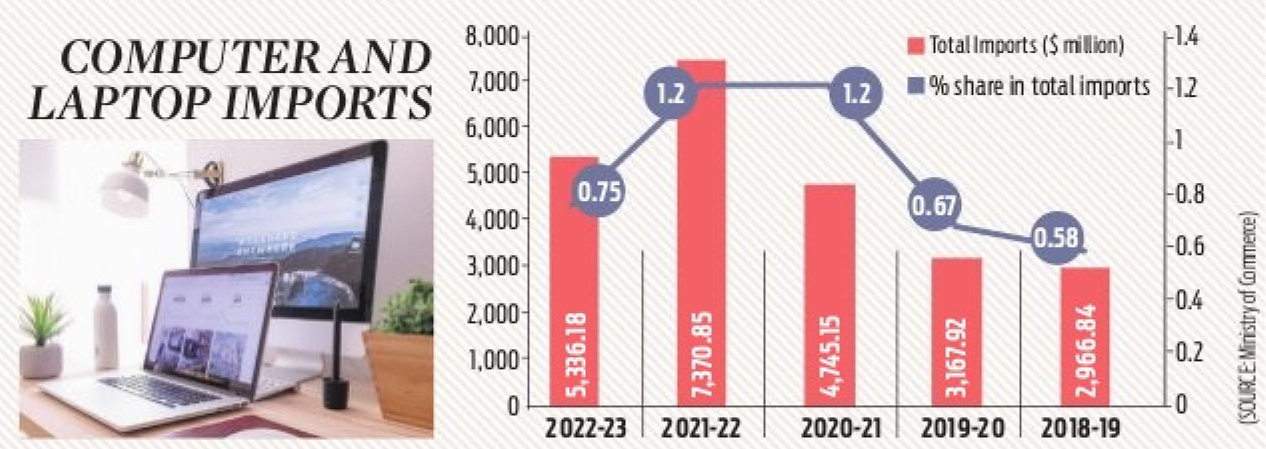
IN a surprise move, the government on Thursday imposed restrictions on imports of laptops, all-in-one personal computers and tablets.

Imports of multiple laptops, computers and tablets would be allowed only against a valid licence. A notification on this regard was issued by the Director General of Foreign Trade, Ministry of Commerce.

While the aim of the move is to promote local manufacturing, commerce ministry official also cited security reasons for the same. "The restrictions were imposed for the national security of Indian citizens and to boost local manufacturing. Some of the hardware can have security related issues and could compromise sensitive and personal data. We have taken into account a few of them," a government official said.

India imported $5.3 billion worth of computers, tablet, etc in 2022-23, down from $7.4 billion in the previous year. Research firm Counterpoint estimates India's laptop and personal computer market to be worth $8 billion annually, with two third of those imported.



Tarun Pathak, research director, Counterpoint Research, said: The laptop/PC industry comprises around 12 million units, and this restriction may lead to some short-term supply disruptions, especially for brands like Apple, HP, and Lenovo. Moreover, with the festive season approaching, a significant period for sales, the industry may face challenges in meeting demand.

However, the government has given exemptions from the restrictions under certain situations.

As per the DGFT notification, the restriction won't be applicable for import of single unit of these goods, including those purchased through e-commerce portals.

The restriction will not be applicable to imports under Baggage Rules, which outline the goods an international traveller can carry in their baggage without attracting customs duty.

Exemption from import license is also provided for up to 20 such items per consignment for the purpose of research & development, testing, benchmarking and evaluation, repair and re-export, product development purposes.

Such items, which are an essential part of a capital goods, will also be exempted from the import licensing requirements. While local manufactures have welcomed the move, trade analysts have raised concerns calling the move a reminder of license permit raj.

"We currently hold the PLI for IT Hardware and are manufacturing laptops for notable brands. With this move, we expect further expansion of our capacity to manufacture these devices. "A. Gururaj, Managing Director, Optiemus Electronics Ltd said.

Ambuja Cement acquires 57% in Sanghi Industries

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Mumbai

Ambuja Cements, part of Adani Group, on Thursday announced acquisition of Sanghi Industries Ltd (SIL) at an enterprise value of ₹5,000 crore.

The mega deal, in which country's second biggest cement maker will acquire 56.74 percent shares of promoters of SIL, will help the company to reach its goal of doubling its capacity ahead of time and close the gap with its competitor UltraTech Cement - largest cement producer in India.

The acquisition will help Ambuja Cements, a part of Adani Cement, to become lowest cost producer of cement as Gujarat-based SIL has limestone reserves of 1 billion tonne, which is a key element in cement manufacturing. The acquisition will also help Ambuja Cements to take the low cost cement to newer markets in South Gujarat, Maharashtra, Karnataka and Kerala via sea by using Sanghi Industries' captive port.

"By joining hands with SIL, Ambuja is poised to expand its market presence, strengthen its product portfolio, and reinforce its position as a leader in the construction materials sector. With this acquisition, the Adani Group is well on course to achieve its target of 140 MTPA (million tonnes per annum) of cement manufacturing capacity by 2028 ahead of time," said Gautam Adani, Chairman of the Adani Group in a statement.

The acquisition will take care of backward integration of Adani Group's other businesses. "Adani Group companies which operate in energy, real estate, ports and logistics business require cement as input. With this acquisition, the group has ensured that its related entities get uninterrupted supply of low cost cement," a Mumbai based analyst with a brokerage firm told this newspaper.

Sanghi Industries has a clinker capacity of 6.6 MTPA and a cement capacity of 6.1 MTPA, including limestone reserves of 1 billion tonne, a captive jetty and power plant. Ambuja Cements plans to increase this capacity to 15 MTPA in next two years and invest in expanding Sanghi's captive port capacity to handle larger vessels of 8,000 DWT (deadweight tonnage).

"Our vision is to produce lowest cost clinker in the country at Sanhipuram and then transport this clinker as well as bulk cement through coastal roads to the markets of Saurashtra South Gujarat, Mumbai and Mumbai Metropolitan Region Karnataka and Kerala," said Karan Adani, CEO, Adani Ports and Special Economic Zones. As per the terms of deal, Ambuja Cement will make an offer to acquire another 26 percent or 6.71 crore equity shares from SIL's public shareholders. If the open offer is fully subscribed, Ambuja Cements will own 82.74% in SIL.

Used car startup Spinny lays off 300 as it merges two platforms

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

USED car retailer Spinny has fired about 300 employees, as the Tiger Global-backed startup merged its two platforms-Truebil and Max- with its main platform.

This move will impact 4.5% of its total workforce or about 300 employees. "We are merging our Budget and Luxury offering platforms - Truebil (Truebil.com) and Spinny Max (Spinny.com/max) - with our main platform Spinny (Spinny.com). This will allow us to offer customers a wider assortment of cars across price points and simplify the discovery of the right car for their needs," Spinny said.

The company said it has witnessed a sharp uptick in demand for reliable, budget friendly cars as most people have resumed work from the office.

"By splitting our inventory of cars across different brand platforms, we were sometimes unable to offer enough options to such customers. With this consolidation, we should be able to meet the needs of these customers well and on the trajectory for 50% growth in business by the end of the calendar year," it said.

This reorganisation will also strengthen its go-to-market business model, reduce costs and improve margin profile.

Royal Enfield will have 80-85% mkt share in mid-size segment: Lal

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

UNFAZED by growing competition in the mid-size motorcycle market, Siddhartha Lal, managing director of Eicher Motors (the parent company of Royal Enfield), on Thursday said they are confident of commanding a market share of 80%-85% in the medium to long term.

Currently, Royal Enfield (RE) dominates the 250cc-750cc segment with a market share of nearly 90%.

"To be fair we are building a fortress which is not easy to penetrate," said Lal as Triumph (in partnership with Bajaj Auto) and Harley-Davidson (in partnership with Hero MotoCorp) – are entering a market, which is almost entirely developed by his company.

"We are many steps ahead of the competitors. We believe that competition would grow the 250cc plus bike market, say from 1 million now to 1.5-2 million in the next five-six years. We will continue to hold 80-85% shares and we are not going to cede any share willingly," said the Eicher Motors managing director.

The MD took a jibe at rival companies and said that he hopes that they have learned a bit now from their 15-year-plus experience and that they would come up with some new ideas.

"Most of them are not able to do things themselves. So they thought, let us join forces and contract manufacture… Unlike our competitors, we are not obsessed with rivals or competition. We are obsessed with consumers," said Lal.

Eicher on Thursday reported a 50% rise in net profit to ₹918 crore in the first quarter of the current financial year (Q1FY24), compared with ₹611 crore in Q1FY23. The company also saw a record rise in revenue to ₹3,986.4 crore during the April-June quarter, up 17% year-on-year.

Royal Enfield sold 225,368 motorcycles in the quarter, an increase of 21%. Eicher said that they have lined up a capital expenditure of ₹1,000 crore for Royal Enfield in FY24, a significant part of which will go towards developing EVs. RE would launch its first electric bike in 2 years.

Temasek to invest ₹1.2K cr in M&M's EV business at ₹80,580 cr valuation

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

SINGAPORE-based investment firm Temasek will invest ₹1,200 crore in Mahindra Electric Automobile Ltd (MEAL), Mahindra & Mahindra's electric vehicle arm. The fresh investment will push MEAL's valuation by 15%, from ₹70,070 crore to ₹80,580 crore, said the automaker in a regulatory filing.

At the end of Thursday's trading session, M&M's market capitalisation stood at ₹1.83 lakh crore.

After the fund infusion, Temasek will have a shareholding in MEAL in the range of 1.49-2.97% of the paid-up share capital on a fully diluted basis. With this, Temasek joins British International Investments (BII) to fund and have a stake in Mahindra's electric arm.

"The securities subscription agreement and shareholders' agreement inter alia provide for investment by Temasek of ₹1,200 crore in compulsorily convertible preference shares of MEAL, in one or more tranches, in accordance with the terms and conditions as stipulated in the aforesaid agreement, valuing MEAL up to ₹80,580 crore. The above investment envisages Temasek having a nominal shareholding of 100 equity shares in MEAL," M&M said in a regulatory filing.

Rajesh Jejurikar, executive director and CEO, auto & farm sectors, Mahindra & Mahindra, said by having Temasek as an investor, they have strengthened their global strategic partnerships and are targeting 20% to 30% of Mahindra SUVs sales from electric vehicles by 2030.

Temasek Holdings is a global investment company with a net portfolio value of $287 billion as of March 31, 2023. The investment by Temasek is part of Mahindra's envisaged business plan of bringing in Rs 10,000 crore worth of investment in the electric vehicle manufacturing arm by FY27.

M&M had last year introduced five electric SUVs globally under two brands - XUV and a new all-electric brand known as BE. Four of these EVs are stated to be launched between 2024 and 2026.

Sebi puts NSDL's IPO in abeyance

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

CAPITAL markets regulator Sebi has kept in 'abeyance' the proposed initial share sale of securities depository NSDL.

However, the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Sebi) did not clarify further.

The National Securities Depository Ltd (NSDL) filed its preliminary papers with the capital markets regulator on July 7. Going by the draft papers, NSDL's proposed initial public offering (IPO) is a complete offer-for-sale (OFS) of more than 5.72 crore equity shares by existing shareholders. Under the OFS, IDBI Bank plans to offload 2.22 crore shares, NSE 1.80 crore shares, Union Bank of India 56.25 lakh shares, State Bank of India and HDFC Bank will offload 40 lakh shares each.

Indian economy to grow at 6.7% for next 8 yrs: S&P

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

S&P GLOBAL, a research and analytics firm, expects India to grow 6.7% per year in next eight years -- FY24 to FY31 – taking the size of GDP to $6.7 trillion from $3.4 trillion in FY23. It said the per capita GDP will rise to about $4,500.

"Capital accumulation will be the dominant driver of Indian growth. Investment as a proportion of GDP reached a 10-year high of 34% in fiscal 2023. The government has played a key role in boosting investment by offering substantial support for infrastructure projects and by incentivising manufacturing," said S&P in its journal named "Look Forward: India's moment".

It expects private sector to increase investments given healthy corporate balance sheets. "We expect capital to contribute 53% of India's 6.7% average GDP growth through the end of the decade. That dwarfs a 17% contribution from labour, the other main factor of production. Increases in productivity will generate 30% of GDP growth," it stated.

As per S&P, growth contribution from productivity will be higher than in the previous periods due to the creation of physical and digital infrastructure in conjunction with efficiency-enhancing reforms. India is likely to see further efficiency gains from reforms such as the introduction of goods and services tax.

Meanwhile, Morgan Stanley has said it is overweight on India as the country is 'arguably at the start of a long wave boom at the same time as China may be ending one'. Morgan Stanley sees positive demographic trends in India with GDP per capita only US$2.5k per capita (vs. US$12.7k for China), household debt/GDP of just 19% (vs. 48% for China) and only 2% of Indian households having life insurance.

Q1FY24 RESULTS

ZOMATO RECORDS FIRST-EVER PROFIT OF ₹2 CR, REVENUE UP 71%

BENGALURU: Foodtech major Zomato has turned PAT (profit after tax) positive for the first-time, registering ₹2 crore profit in the first quarter of this financial year (Q1FY24). In Q4FY23, the company had reported a consolidated net loss of ₹189 crore. Blinkit, its quick commerce business, also turned contribution positive for the first time and Zomato believes that they can deliver adjusted EBITDA breakeven in the quick commerce business in the next one year. The company's CEO Deepinder Goyal said they have been working hard to make business less complex, and putting the right people at the right spots within our businesses.

"These things don't have definite/measurable impact, and I can in hindsight say that most of our seemingly 'risky' bets have changed the trajectory of the business significantly, much faster than we expected," he said. Zomato on Thursday reported a 70.8% rise in revenue from operations at ₹2,416 crore, as against ₹1,414 crore in the year-ago period. The foodtech major expects its business to remain profitable, going forward, and believes it will continue to deliver over 40% YoY topline (adjusted revenue) growth for at least next couple of years. Goyal said Blinkit's GOV (gross order value) is close to Zomato's GOV in some of the large cities where they have an overlapping presence. He believes 10 years from now, Blinkit will drive more value for its shareholders than Zomato. Its Hyperpure revenue grew 29% QoQ (126% YoY) to ₹617 crore in Q1FY24. ENS

ADANI ENTERPRISES PAT UP 44% TO ₹677 CRORE

NEW DELHI: Adani Enterprises on Thursday reported a 44.41% increase in consolidated profit after tax (PAT) at ₹676.93 crore for the quarter ending June 2023-24 on account of reduced expenses.It had reported ₹468.74 crore PAT for the same period a year ago, the company said in a BSE filing. Total income however fell to ₹25,809.94 crore from ₹41,066.43 crore in the year-ago quarter. Expenses also reduced to ₹24,731.42 crore from ₹40,433.96 crore a year ago.

"These results are a validation of our group's robust operational and financial achievements. These outcomes, led by our incubating business of Adani Airports, Adani New Industries, Data Center and Adani Roads, not only underscore our history of creating and nurturing new and vital infrastructure businesses but also emphasise the future value and growth potential of the diverse Adani portfolio," Gautam Adani, Chairman of Adani Group, said in a separate statement. The group's expertise in executing large-scale projects, like Kutch Copper, Navi Mumbai Airport, the certification of India's first 5 MW onshore wind turbine, coupled with world-class O&M (operation and maintenance) capabilities are fundamental drivers that continue to accelerate the group's infrastructure journey, he said. Adani Enterprises Limited (AEL) is the flagship company of Adani Group. ENS

COGNIZANT REPORTS $4.9 BILLION REVENUE

BENGALURU: Cognizant has reported a 0.4% year-on-year decline in revenue at $4.9 billion for the second quarter ending June 30, 2023. Its net profit for the quarter declined by 24.6% to $463 million compared to $577 million in the same quarter last year. Cognizant, which follows the calendar year, saw bookings growth of 17% y-o-y in the June quarter.

"We made continued progress during the quarter amid an uncertain economic backdrop," said Ravi Kumar S, CEO, Cognizant. "We maintained our commercial momentum, with strong bookings growth of 17% year over year, including roughly a third of in-quarter bookings from large deals. We also saw a return to sequential revenue growth, and our initial investment in the Cognizant Neuro AI platform has helped drive more than 100 early engagements as clients embrace generative AI," he said. The IT major's Voluntary attrition - Tech Services on a trailing-twelve-month basis, declined to 19.9% from 23.1% in Q1 2023 and 31.1% in Q2 2022. The CEO said the continued reduction in voluntary attrition, improved employee engagement and higher customer satisfaction scores reflect the interdependence of our client and employee experience. It also announced that its CFO Jan Siegmund intends to retire in early 2024. Siegmund will stay in his role until the company identifies a successor and the transition period is completed. ENS

AIRTEL NET PROFIT FLAT AT ₹1,612 CRORE, REVENUE RISES 14%

NEW DELHI: Telecom service provider Bharti Airtel on Thursday reported a net profit of ₹1,612 crore for the quarter ending June 2023, as against ₹1,607 crore during the same period last year. The company's revenue for the quarter was 14% higher at Rs 37,440 crore compared to the year-ago period "backed by strong and consistent performance delivery across the portfolio", the company said.

"We have delivered yet another quarter of strong and competitive growth across all our businesses...Our focus on winning quality customers and driving premiumisation has helped us add 5.6 million new 4G customers and the highest ever postpaid customers in any one quarter," managing director Gopal Vittal said in a statement. Mobile services India revenues were up 12.4% year on year led by continued strong 4G customer additions and an increase in Average Revenue Per User (ARPU). The consolidated net income (after exceptional items) stood at ₹1,612 crore, a rise of 0.3% over the corresponding period of the previous year. The consolidated net income (before exceptional items) stood at ₹2,902 crore, a rise by 91.3% year on year. The company said mobile ARPU (a key metric for telecom operators) increased to ₹200 in the first quarter of FY24 as against ₹183 in April-June FY23. ENS

Sindhu, Srikanth, Prannoy enter quarterfinals

PV Sindhu, Kidambi Srikanth and HS Prannoy moved into the quarterfinals of the Australia Open badminton BWF Super 500 tournament with contrasting victories, here on Thursday. The fifth seed Sindhu easily overcame compatriot Aakarshi Kashyap 21-14 21-10 in a second round women's singles match. Sindhu will face fourth seed Beiwen Zhang of USA in the quarterfinal.

Asiad bound wushu player, 14-year-old swimmer fail dope test

While this could be one of the youngest athletes testing positive in senior nationals, officials and experts feel that parents & coaches should be more responsible

INDRANEEL DAS @Chennai

In a shocking case of doping, a 14-year-old swimmer tested positive for steroids and has been handed a provisional suspension. According to the updated provisional list (as on August 1, 2023) on the National Anti-Doping Agency Website, the minor athlete from aquatics tested positive for 19-norandrosterone, an anabolic androgenic steroid (AAS) on World Anti-Doping Agency Prohibited list. It is understood that the swimmer was part of the national team.

If this is not enough, another Asiad-bound player in wushu tested positive. According to the NADA provisional suspension list, Owais Sarwar Ahenger is among the three wushu players who failed a dope test. The wushu player tested positive for a cocktail of drugs — 19-norandrosterone and stimulants mephentermine and its metabolite phentermine.

According to the Wushu Association of India, Owais, a national champion in 78kg, was part of the 13-member team that was supposed to leave for Hangzhou in September-October. Owais has been asked to leave the camp after the officials were notified. As for the disconcerting news of the young swimmer, the Swimming Federation of India said it was shocking that such a young athlete has tested positive. The sample apparently was collected recently. The swimmer created a record in women's freestyle at the senior nationals held in Hyderabad in June. It needs to be seen what course the swimmer takes. A first time steroid offence usually leads to a four-year ban. However, since 2021, the WADA has introduced another rule wherein if the athlete "voluntarily accepts the Anti-Doping Rule Violation (ADRV) and applicable consequences within 20 days from the date of notice of charge" they will be handed a reduced ban of three years. "We are very shocked that such a young athlete has tested positive. Parents and coaches are required to be more responsible and ensure that they do not pursue performance at any cost," said Monal Chokshi, the secretary of the SFI. It needs to be seen if the swimmer goes for a B sample test.

Perhaps, it could be the first time that such a young athlete has tested positive. There have been occasions when athletes at Khelo India Youth Games and junior nationals have tested positive, but not too many athletes have been tested at under 16.

In the case of minor athletes, experts felt the authorities must hold coaches and parents responsible because at this age athletes hardly know anything about doping. Even if it is contaminated supplements, wards and coaches must be aware what the athlete is consuming. Ashok Ahuja, former head of the department of sports medicine at NIS Patiala and an anti-doping expert, said that the positive test is not surprising and that there should be more testing in the junior and sub-junior level. He felt that authorities are aware of such abuse at the grassroots. "It is not very surprising because we are aware of it," he said,

"There are quite a number of youngsters at the grassroots level are adopting to such unfair means and I am sure it could be with the consent of their coaches and even parents also know about it." However, the veteran doctor felt that it would adversely affect the health of youngsters. "It depends on the salt the child has consumed," he said. "For anabolic steroids, it has very serious side effects not only in terms of liver damage, hypertension and heart problems but it leads to stunted growth in adolescents. This is very serious." He also said that it affects the growth of the articular system of the body. Articular system consists of the joints of the body and the surrounding tissues. "The bone growth is still taking place at this age and that gets stunted," he said.

Two more wushu players who tested positive and provisionally suspended are Shavi Dahiya and Mukul. The two are nationals medallists as well. Shavi tested positive for Selective Androgen Receptor Modulators (SARMS) ligandrol. As reported by this newspaper earlier, SARMS was developed to treat elderly patients suffering from muscle and nerve damage and is illegal to buy anywhere in the world as the American company developing it is still to be approved for human consumption. Mukul tested positive for steroid stanozolol. Both athletes are staring at four-year ban. There is a fencer who tested positive for 19-norandrosterone.

PAKISTAN TEAM COMES WITH MESSAGE OF LOVE

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN
@Chennai

IT'S late on Thursday. The mosque next to the Mayor Radhakrishnan Stadium sounds the call to prayer (Azan). It's time for Isha, the night-time prayer, in Islam. Pakistan, training on the main pitch of the Stadium, stops their practice while Azan is ongoing. After observing silence, they resume the training session.

A good hour later, Muhammad Saqlain, officially listed as the team coach for the Asian Champions Trophy, has another prayer. For both nations to come together and show 'large-heartedness'. He compares the two warring neighbours and says they could come together to coexist peacefully like how others have done it. Americans have Canadians alongside them. If there's Australia, then they have New Zealand next to them. Germany has Netherlands... one country might be superior to another but on the field of play, they are all the same. There has to be respect and love."

While there is no love lost at the government level, it's not fair to say the same as far as sporting relations are concerned, especially in field hockey. Players of both countries have played hard but fair and have always exchanged pleasantries and have nothing but respect and love for their counterparts from across the border. Saqlain, for instance, can't wait to meet his guru, Dhanraj Pillay, the show-stopper who dazzled crowds with his stickwork in the 90s and the early noughties. "We also want to see our guru, Dhanraj Pillay," he said after a Pakistan training session on Wednesday. "I want to make my players meet him. If he comes, I will request him to meet my players at the team hotel and give them a lecture. I used to like Dhanraj a lot when I was a player."

That sort of love and affection is shared by India's former hockey players. When they entered India via the Attari-Wagah border a few days ago, a few familiar faces greeted them — Singhs, Kamalpreet and Jugraj. "Jugraj and Kamalpreet came to receive us. They were waiting for us to reach there," Saqlaid said.

The bond between Kamalpreet and Saqlain, in a microcosm, sums up the relationship the players have developed over the decades. They may be rivals on the field; off the field, they are brothers from another mother. "In 2005, I was the captain of the team that was here (for the Champions Trophy), and Kamalpreet Singh was blessed with a daughter. His parents told me to name the child, saying it was the guest's honour to do that. I named her Rehmat, since it was by the grace of God."

Thursday's results: South Korea 2-1 Japan, Malaysia 3-1 Pakistan, India 7-2 China

He has a special place in his heart for Gagan Ajit Singh. "Gagan was a very close friend; we used to spend our time together off the field. On it, we used to rile each other, tease, score goals and make the other person angry... it happened many times and Jugraj would end up playing the mediator. We are all very close friends. When we played in a third country, Gagan and all used to get gifts for our families. I, too, used to do that."

He also remembers a time when people in the stands welcomed them with open arms. "I can't forget the passion and love the people of Bhopal showered on us when I first played here in 1999. It never felt like we were playing away from home."

The fractured diplomatic relationship between the two nations has meant that both countries haven't played in a Test series in both cricket and hockey in well over a decade. He advocated for 'large-heartedness' before going on to call India as 'progressive' and 'superior'. "Both nations need to show large-heartedness. That's my request, even to India — you've progressed so much as a country, a lot superior, please open your heart a little more so you can accommodate a few more people.

"In 1999, PM Vajpayee ji played a very positive role, even starting Samjhauta Express. So it's important to have continuity of the process. The amount of talent our two nations have, I haven't seen anywhere else in the world. We have to let bygones be bygones and look at the future together. Everyone will benefit if we do that."

Rehan Butt, part of the backroom staff with the team, also spoke about indelible relationships with friends from across the border. "All of them are my friends," he said. "Few of my Indian friends may come to Chennai, but nothing has been decided yet."

One thing he would love to take back home — he calls it 'the biggest gift' — is the Punjabi plays that he finds hard to get back home.

On the field, the Green Shirts were a tad unlucky as they went down to Malaysia 1-3. They spurned a host of chances as well as a penalty stroke.

India men thrash China

CHENNAI: Three-time champions and hosts India started their Asian Champions Trophy campaign on a resounding note, thrashing China 7-2 in their opening match of the tournament on Thursday. Harmanpreet Singh (5th, 8th minutes) and Varun Kumar (19th, 30th) converted two penalty corners each, while Sukhjeet Singh (15th), Akashdeep Singh (16th) and Mandeep Singh (40th) were the other goal scorers for India.

Gukesh second Indian to move past Anand

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN
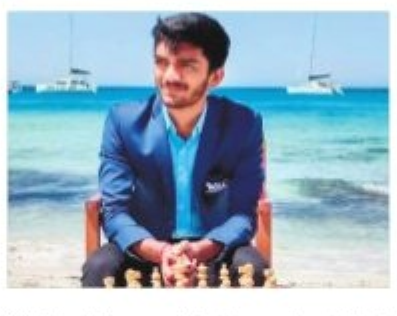
@Chennai

AT some point in the near future, D Gukesh will be asked if he can turn water into wine. Right now, though, the precocious chess talent, still only 17, will settle for writing himself into the record books with poise, composure and efficiency that you normally don't find in Indians as well as teenagers.

In the process, Gukesh became just the second player from India to move past Viswanathan Anand's Classical rating (live) since July 1986. At the ongoing FIDE World Cup, Gukesh took down Azerbaijan's Misratdin Iskandarov with black pieces to move into the third round. After two wins in as many days over the same opponent, Gukesh's live rating is 2755.9, 1.9 rating points in front of Anand.

Since overtaking Pravin Thipsay (India's first GM) in July 1986, Anand has been the undisputed leader among Indians in Classical (published ratings). The only time he relinquished the hold was when P Harikrishna went ahead during a tournament in March 2016. Gukesh, considered as the first among equals among the wunderkinds that have emerged in this chess boom in India, unlike Harikrishna, has the opportunity to go past Anand when the new ratings get published later this month. While R Praggnanandhaa stole the limelight when the two were still adolescents, Gukesh's rapid rise coincided with Mahabalipuram hosting the Chess Olympiad. He showed a penchant to remain calm under pressure; a trait that was rewarded by eight consecutive wins to start the tournament including stunning takedowns of US' Fabiano Caruana, Alexei Shirov and Gabriel Sargissian. Playing on the first board for India B, he walked away with the main individual honour in the open category. He began the Olympiad with a rating of 2684 and was World No. 54. In exactly a year, he has broken through the Top-10. The main thing he has changed is his opening.



"He has become more consistent," his coach, Vishnu Prasanna, had told this daily last month when he became the youngest teen to breach the 2750-mark. "In the last six-eight months, his openings have improved. He's devoting more time to it than he used to. That's the main difference."Seeded eighth at the World Cup, Gukesh's goal of qualifying for the Candidates is just beginning (the top three finishers gain automatic entry). With the kind of form he's showing, don't bet against it doing it in 2023.

Modiji should say something, Manipur hockey star Nilakanta

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN
@Chennai

HOCKEY star and India midfielder Nilakanta Sharma has urged Prime Minister Narendra Modi to directly address the situation in Manipur.

Sharma, who's currently with the hockey team in Chennai for Asian Champions Trophy, said: "What can I say about my state? Nothing will change if I say anything. But I only hope Modiji says something for our sake." Sharma said this when asked if he wished to say anything to the people of India about the unfolding crisis that's hit Manipur over the last few months. He did visit his family back home in Imphal a few months ago. "My family is safe and things are fine in Imphal where they live. The problems are in the hilly regions. I last visited my home two months ago and things were fine in Imphal then."

In May, Manipur's small but passionate hockey community was directly affected because of the violence. Laishram Ribaldo Meitei, supposed to be part of the state's age-group team at the 13th Hockey India junior national championship in Rourkela, was shot dead in Imphal East (he was a captain at the sub-junior level). "We are trying our best to stay competitive for the tournament but how can someone forget about his family and friends when the violence is claiming lives every day," Manipur team manager Thiyam Roshankumar Singh had told this daily when the tournament was being held in Rourkela in June.

While several leaders have spoken about the violence, the PM has maintained a stoic silence. Sharma's demand was echoed by the opposition. In an address to the media after meeting president Droupadi Murmu, Mallikarjun Kharge said: "... the main demand is that the Prime Minister should speak and visit Manipur and list out steps needed to bring peace in Manipur and provide relief to the people of the state." During the meeting with Murmu, the opposition had submitted a memorandum on Wednesday.

"We implore you to press upon the Prime Minister to urgently address Parliament on the prevailing situation in Manipur, followed by a detailed and comprehensive discussion on the matter," it had said.

Worlds trials, a stiff test for Bajrang and Vinesh

FIROZ MIRZA @Chennai

EVEN as Bajrang Punia cut short his training camp in Kyrgyzstan and boarded the flight back to India on July 29, Brij Bhushan Sharan Singh, the sidelined president of the Wrestling Federation of India (WFI), was gearing up to host representatives from state units in New Delhi on Sunday. With the last date for filing the nomination being July 31, the meeting gained prominence. As it turned out, Brij Bhushan's faction filed nominations for all 15 posts in the executive committee.

As Brij Bhushan has the backing of most of the state units, it seems his faction is expected to enjoy the edge on August 12, the election day. This may also mean the pending selection trials for the World Championships can be organised by the newly-elected body. If it happens, this would not make life any easier for Bajrang and Vinesh Phogat, who led the protest against Brij Bhushan accusing him of sexual harassment. "A few wrestlers including winners of the Asian Games trials wrote to hold the trials after August 20. We have written to the United World Wrestling and are awaiting its reply. It looks highly impossible that the trials can be held before August 12," said a source in the ad-hoc committee. The Worlds is scheduled from September 16 to 24.

The panel had earlier said that four top wrestlers from the Asiad trials in each weight category will be eligible to compete in the Worlds trials. This will effectively mean in 53kg women's wrestling and 65kg men's freestyle, where Vinesh and Bajrang compete respectively, five wrestlers will be in the fray. "As per rule, less than six means the Nordic system will be used where the wrestlers fight each other. If the faction led by Brij Bhushan comes to power, the duo is unlikely to get any bye and they have to undergo four bouts. It will not be easy for the duo, who have been mostly away from the mat for months," said the coach.

Morocco make history

AGENCIES @Perth

MOROCCO beat Colombia 1-0 to make it to the Women's World Cup knockout round, creating yet more history at the global tournament. Morocco is the first Arab or North African nation to go beyond the group stage at the Women's World Cup, and the only one of eight tournament newcomers to advance.

Morocco's winning goal came in first-half stoppage time, when Anissa Lahmari put back a penalty-save rebound. The win meant Morocco qualify in second place in the group, behind Colombia, and knocking two-time champion Germany out of the tournament. No. 2-ranked Germany needed a win over South Korea in a game being played simultaneously in Brisbane, but was held to a 1-1 draw.

If Morocco's qualification for the Women's World Cup inspired a generation, this will cement the legacy of the Atlas Lionesses. The Moroccans were trounced 6-0 by Germany in their debut game in the tournament, but bounced back with consecutive wins over South Korea and a Colombia team that had been growing in confidence after edging Germany. Morocco will play Group F winner France in Adelaide on Tuesday.

Morocco players celebrate victory after the 1-0 victory against Colombia at Perth on Thursday. They have qualified for the Round of 16, edging past Germany | AFP

Results: Morocco 1-0 Colombia, South Korea 1-1 Germany. Pre-quarterfinalists: Switzerland, Norway, Australia, Nigeria, Japan, Spain, England, Denmark, Netherlands, United States, France, Jamaica, Sweden, South Africa, Colombia, Morocco.

India lose first T20I to Windies

AGENCIES @Tarouba

INDIA leg-spinner Yuzvendra Chahal made instant impact in his first game on the tour before Rovman Powell played a captain's knock to take West Indies to 149 for six in the first T20 International on Thursday. It proved to be enough as none of the batters got going and India eventually fell short of the targer by four runs. Earlier, besides Powell's 48 off 32 balls, the in-form Nicholas Pooran made an entertaining 41 off 34 balls. Brief scores: West Indies: 149/6 in 20 ovs (Powell 48, Pooran 41; Chahal 2/24, Arshdeep 2/31) bt India 145/9 in 20 ovs (Varma 39; Holder 2/19, McCoy 2/28).
